Nixon Seen Near Victory

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Richard M. Nixon forged to the edge of a GOP presidential nomination victory today with Govs. Nelson A. Rockefeller and Ronald Reagan desperately trying to prevent their elimination on the first ballot.

The 29th Republican National Convention, its preliminaries mostly out of the way, gets down to its real business tonight, picking the head of a ticket most of the 1,333 delegates hope will win the White House for the party in November.

Although the former vice president declined to predict a first roll call victory, his strategists chipped away at the few remaining boulders of opposition in an all-out attempt to settle the issue quickly.

With the Associated Press count of publicly committed delegates standing at 613 for Nixon, a first-ballot victory for him seemed to hinge on what switches might take place if he came close to the necessary 667 total for the nomination as the clerk completed the state-by-state tally.

The Associated Press tally of publicly committed first-ballot strength showed Nixon 613, Rockefeller 272, Reagan 176, favorite sons 195, uncommitted 76 and Mayor John V. Lindsay of New York 1.

At completion of the first roll call individual delegates—or whole delegations for that matter—could ask to change their vote in the hope of being singled out for later political recognition as supplying the winner with the margin necessary for nomination.

Although Leonard W. Hall, Rockefeller's convention manager, stuck to his claim that Nixon would get no more than 560 votes on the first count, this did not necessarily reflect the opinion of those grappling with realities in the New York governor's camp.

Sen. Thruston B. Morton of Kentucky, one of a dozen inner-circle advisers, said a great problem in stopping Nixon lies in the possibility of southern delegates who have switched to Reagan in the last few days jumping to Nixon if it appears their votes could put him over.

F. Clifton White, Reagan's convention floor manager, said in a separate interview that just won't happen. "

"The people who have come out for Reagan have done so as a matter of principle," he said. "They want him for president and I think they are going to stick with him."

White agreed with Hall that Nixon can be stopped. New York National Committeeman George W. Hinman, Gov. John Love of Colorado and Meade Alcorn of Connecticut, former GOP national chairman, all expressed confidence that Nixon will be stopped.

The delegates, harassed in previous sessions by security restrictions and confused by candidate claims, get their opportunity to erupt into a traditional show of enthusiasm with tonight's nominating and seconding speeches.

Gov. Spiro T. Agnew of Maryland, who once fostered a draft-Rockefeller movement, was set to describe Nixon in glowing terms. Gov. Raymond P. Shafer of Pennsylvania had the word that Rockefeller's the man. Mrs. Ivy Baker Priest, former U.S treasurer, was chosen to laud Reagan.

Outside the Convention Hall a huge sign proclaims: "Rockefeller can win." Below it, a more modest sign is couched in even more affirmative language: "Nixon will win."

Negroes in denim shirts and straw hats arrived at Convention Hall Tuesday night with a mule-drawn covered wagon. The Rev. Ralph D. Abernathy and about 50 other members of the Poor People's Campaign were admitted quietly to the session on guest tickets.

Rhodes Silent On Role

Described As 'Key' To Nomination

Chief Candidates Wooing, Pursuing And Courting Him

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Gov. James Allen Rhodes continues to keep his own counsel on what ultimate role he and his powerful 58-vote Ohio delegation will play in selecting tonight the Republican presidential candidate.

The 56-year-old governor has refused to budge from his favorite son role, making it a point not to divulge his preference in the power struggle among the three major candidates, Richard M. Nixon, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and Gov. Ronald Reagan.

Because of this, Rhodes has been called the key to the nomination and the man of the hour. Others say he's trying to play kingmaker. But whatever he's called, all the candidates have been wooing, pursuing and courting him.

Tonight Rhodes will be nominated for the presidency by his followers in the Ohio delegation, with all the trappings of a serious candidate.

The Ohioans have flooded Miami Beach hotels with "Rhodes for President" buttons, banners, balloons and literature. They are geared for a huge demonstration on the floor tonight when Rhodes is nominated by Dr. John Millett, chancellor of the Ohio Board of Regents.

"We decided months ago to come to Miami Beach uncommitted and that's just what we have done," Rhodes says in explaining why he has so far not come out for any certain candi-

Woman, Girl Lose Lives In Area Traffic Accidents

County's 1968 Traffic Toll
18 KILLED
This date in 1967—21 killed
DON'T TEMPT FATE IN '68

Area traffic accidents have taken two more lives — a Steubenville girl being killed early this morning and a Columbiana County woman Tuesday afternoon.

The dead are Hedda Lee, 14, of 3267 St. Charles St., Steubenville, and Mrs. Alice Dowd, 24, of Lisbon Rt. 3.

The Lee girl became Columbiana County's 18th traffic victim of the year. The Dowd accident occurred in Mahoning County.

MISS LEE was killed near the intersection of Routes 7 and 14 at 1:30 a.m. in a car-tractor-trailer collision.

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon said the girl was a passenger in a 1966 sedan driven by her mother, Mrs. Harriet E. Lee, 44. She was thrown from the car when Mrs. Lee lost control and the vehicle skidded left of center into the path of a tractor - trailer operated by George William Welch, 30, of 1196 Harker Ave.

The auto continued on, spun around and struck a guardrail. Miss Lee was pronounced dead on arrival at Salem City Hospital of a crushed chest and internal injuries.

Three other children of the Lees were injured and taken to Salem City Hospital. They are Elver, Jr., 16, Dorian, 8, and Michael, 4.

Mrs. Lee is the wife of Dr. Elver Lee of Steubenville. She and the children were returning home after attending a wedding in Chicago.

Mrs. Lee was cited by the patrol for driving at excessive speed for road conditions. All occupants of the car except Hedda and the 4-year-old Michael were wearing seat belts, the patrol said.

MRS. DOWD lost her life in a two - car crash on U.S. 62, five miles east of Alliance in Mahoning County. The accident was timed at 3:05 p.m.

She was a passenger in the auto driven by Mrs. Helen D. Gamble, 51, of Box 74, Elkton. Mrs. Gamble apparently was unable to stop for a line of traffic which was slowing in the eastbound lane. She applied the brakes and went left of center into the path of a station wagon operated by Leo Bryan, 44, of 149 W. Wood St., Youngstown, the patrol said.

Mrs. Gamble and 18-month-old Johnny Dowd were reported in fair condition at Alliance City Hospital.

Mrs. Gamble suffered head, chest and shoulder injuries and Johnny a concussion.

Bryan and his son Kenneth, 17, were shaken up but not seriously injured. Four other brothers ranging in age from 8-14 were in the station wagon.

U.S.-South Vietnam Task Force Killed 219 In Week Of Clashes

SAIGON (AP) — A U.S.-South Vietnamese task force invaded a major Viet Cong supply depot and killed 219 enemy soldiers in a week of clashes that took American infantrymen deeper into the Mekong Delta than ever before, military spokesmen announced today.

South Vietnamese military headquarters said there were no allied fatalities and only six U.S. infantrymen and three South Vietnamese marines were wounded. A spokesman attributed the unusual kill ratio to American helicopter gunships and artillery, which were credited with killing most of the claimed enemy dead.

The fighting swirled in and out of three provinces centered about 125 miles southwest of Saigon on the fringes of the U Minh forest, a Viet Cong sanctuary virtually untouched by government troops for more than 20 years.

Armored troop carriers from the U.S. Navy's Riverine Force moved up and down the rivers and canals with gunboat escorts, carrying more than 1,000 American infantrymen from the 9th Division and 500 South Vietnamese marines into action.

At the other end of South Vietnam, U.S. Marines and South Vietnamese paratroopers reported killing 75 North Vietnamese troops in clashes Tuesday south of Da Nang, an area of intensified fighting in the past two weeks. Allied losses included one Marine and 10 South Vietnamese killed, 14 South Vietnamese and 22 Marines wounded, and two South Vietnamese missing.

In one clash 10 miles south of Da Nang, U.S. Marines from the 5th Regiment came under heavy machine-gun, mortar and recoilless rifle fire. Supported by fighter-bombers, tanks and artillery, the Leathernecks counterattacked and over-ran the enemy three hours later. Twenty-three of the enemy were reported killed and Marine casualties were one dead and 22 wounded.

Fifty-two enemy were reported killed in a clash with troops of the South Vietnamese 51st

Street Work, Levy OK'd By Council At Wellsville

Wellsville Council Tuesday night set up a street improvement program, adopted a resolution to place before voters at the Nov. 5 election a half-mill levy for the operation and maintenance of parks and playgrounds and approved a technical study of urban mass transportation in cooperation with the city of East Liverpool.

All three measures were passed under suspension of rules on "yes" votes by Councilmen Russell Keefer, Paul Todd, Robert Taggart, J. Brad Phillips, Nunzio Lombardozzi and Jack Call. Glenn Mathess was absent.

The levy would be for two years.

Under the street program, Safety - Service Director Fred Baldasare was authorized to advertise for bids, with the Board of Control to award the contract.

The type of material and the streets to be improved follow: Single seal coating — Lisbon St., 6th to Diamond; Danbury, 18th to Clark; Chester, 19th to 21st; lower Danbury, 20th to Clark; Main and 20th from 18th to Clark; Clover St., 12th to 13th; 11th, Riverside to Commerce.

Double seal coating — Second, Lisbon to Broadway; Lisbon, 4th to 6th; Lisbon, 9th to 10th; Riverside, 4th to 9th; 10th, Commerce to Buckeye; Wood St., 6th to 8th.

Blacktop — 14th, Commerce to storm sewer; Commerce, from 17th to 18th.

Council concurred with the East Liverpool Office of Transportation on the filing of an application for federal financial assistance for a technical study for urban mass transportation in the East Liverpool area through the urban Transportation Administration of the Department of Housing and Urban Development.

The councilmen termed the study "necessary for a determination of the type of transit and related facilities and services that will properly meet the transportation needs of the East Liverpool area, including Wellsville."

The financial assistance would be provided under the

More Prices Are Boosted By U.S. Steel

PITTSBURGH (AP) — U.S. Steel Corp., which usually sets the pace for steel prices across the nation, announced more price hikes today on certain products.

The nation's biggest steel producer, which had announced hikes in tin mill products and structural steel items several days ago, posted new prices on four new items.

The announcement came in the face of opposition by President Johnson, who had asked the steel industry to hold the line on price increases. The White House aides has said during the weekend that a standpat position on prices by U.S. Steel was one of the President's big hopes.

In announcing price hikes ranging from $4.50 to $8.00 a ton on carbon and high-strength, low-alloy steels and constructional full alloy steels today, U.S. Steel said:

"To repeat, steel prices are not the cause of inflation. This is now almost, but not quite, universally recognized."

U.S. Steel said the price changes, "if applied industry-wide and taking into account

PARIS (AP) — The United States told North Vietnam at the Paris peace talks today that 14 captured North Vietnamese seamen will be released. Last week three U.S. fliers, released by the North Vietnamese, came out of Hanoi.

The North Vietnamese handled their release of the airmen mainly through the peace talks and the United States responded using the same channel with an obvious interest in tying the goodwill gestures into the search for peace.

'Favorite Son' Role Suggested For Moore

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Supporters of New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller are urging that Rep. Arch Moore Jr., R-W.Va., be nominated as a favorite son candidate for president, two West Virginia newspapers reported today.

West Virginia's 14 - member delegation to the Republican National Convention was to hold its first caucus today.

Lightning Causes Damage

Thunderstorm Hits Area

A violent thunderstorm swept the tri - state early today, dumping more than inch of rain and causing considerable lightning damage, including a bolt-ignited fire at an East Palestine home.

More thundershowers are in prospect tonight and Thursday in the district, with the hot and humid weather continuing. A slight cooling trend may occur tomorrow, however.

Tonight's low is expected to be in the 70s.

Highs will range in the upper 70s to upper 80s. Lows will average in the upper 50c to mid-60s. Showers near the end of the week will average about one - half inch.

AN ESTIMATED $5,000 damage was caused at the home of Mrs. Ernest May and son, Calvin, of 160 S. Market St., East Palestine, when the bolt struck a utility line and traveled into the double frame house about 12:30 a.m., starting a blaze.

There was some damage at the adjacent home of Mrs. Elzie Quetot of 184 S. Market St. and to an attached cottage occupied by Mrs. Anna Justison.

Three transformers of the city - owned power plant in the same area were disrupted about the same time. Wiring at the Adamson Manufacturing Co. of E. Clark St. also was damaged by a bolt.

Homes in the southern part of Rogers were without power for about three hours when a line broke along Route 7 near the Ohio Edison substaton at East Fairfield around 2:40 a.m.

Mrs. Ruth Jenkins, weather observer at Rogers, reported 1.16 inches of rain fell.

Senator Gets Roaring Hand

GOP Convention Comes Alive As Dirksen Speaks

AP Special Correspondent

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — John Wayne, the elder statesman, gave way to Everett McKinley Dirksen, the old prairie actor, and the Republican National Convention came alive last night.

Rising up from the tundra of tedium and the rhetoric of rigor mortis, it was Dirksen, United States senator, Senate GOP leader, Convention Platform Committee chairman, marigold musketeer, recording star, Pekin's peerless apostle of the new politics of the age of Elizabeth I, who gave the delegates their first incisive lesson in the arts of elecution, execution and electrification (rural).

They began by giving him a roaring hand and he began by saying, "I accept the nomination." It was the first joke to emanate from this year's podium. Theater critics, allegedly Democrats, predicted it would not be the last.

"Quiet!" he thundered, jowls quivering, silver rivulets of hair flailing, like that of an aroused Zeus.

And still there was no quiet.

He held up nine pounds of speech texts.

"If you'll be quiet for 45 minutes," said Everett McKinley Dirksen, the beguiling negotiator, "I'll throw these speeches anywhere you want me to throw them."

And then he did, nine pounds of speeches, right over the speaker's platform, into the hearts of the peasants. While it was not precisely clear whose speeches had been jettisoned, it was obvious Dirksen still had his.

Now the delegates were quiet and the Pekin Pericles, rising slowly from the Armageddon tones of his basso profundo, began. "In Philadelphia 181 years ago, far-seeing men fashioned us a revolutionary new government. . . ."

"A Soviet leader declaims that ours is a rotten, decadent society. God forbid our having to make the point but, should he try us, he'll quickly find out what Americans really are!"

"Oh, how cynical, how mocking that political slogan!. . . Never has an undeclared war embroiled America so long. . . . Never our prestige so low, our alliances so weakened, our image so impaired. . . . Never has the nation been so mired in debt. . . . Now we've been rocketed to fiscal outer space . . .

"Great Society indeed! . . . It is not a New Deal or a Fair Deal. It's just a straight-out Misdeal. Humor it longer, and it will destroy what the Founding Fathers wrought."

Body swaying, finger pointing out and down as if he were anointing the delegates in holy water, Everett McKinley Dirksen, lay preacher, quoted Abe Lincoln, Oliver Cromwell, Ben Franklin, got the delegates up on their feet and repeating after him, "One nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all," and, with lofty tolerance, finally allowed them to subside back into their seats, fully sated with their first red meat although they never did learn which speeches were thrown away, if any.

Ohio Monhly Welfare Cost Reported Over $17.5 Million

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — State Auditor Roger Cloud said today that the cost of the reorganized state administered welfare program is in excess of $17.5 million per month.

He said August financing of the various programs will total $17,618,523, exclusive of the health care which is running about the same as for the last fiscal year—$6 million monthly.

Cloud reported that a breakdown of the monthly allocations of direct aid payments showed that the aid for dependent children (ADC) program involved a total disbursement of $8,027,329, or 45.5 per cent of the statewide distribution for all programs.

That was followed by the Aid for the Aged program with expenditures of $3,668,296 or 20.8 per cent of the overall disbursements.

The average monthly award for the aged was $60.56 per case for the 60,567 cases, and $149.05 per case for the 53,854 dependent children cases.

Other allocations for August were: $3,410,976 for general assistance, including administrative costs for all welfare programs by the county welfare departments; $1,791,363 for the disabled program; $619,689 for the dependent children of the unemployed, and $200,870 for the blind program.

Cloud said further analysis showed that the eight large urban counties accounted for a total of $12,195,814, or 69.2 per cent of the statewide distributions.

These payments to the large counties for all programs, followed, respectively by that portion required to finance the dependent children programs, were: Cuyahoga, $3,743,838 and $2,261,305; Franklin, $2,086,586 and $1,059,331; Hamilton, $2,572,632 and $933,944; Lucas, $1,355,518 and $595,433; Mahoning, $461,448 and $211,433; Montgomery, $847,792 and $478,438; Stark, $334,543 and $138,870, and Summit, $793,454 and $456,536.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. — How can I mix a starch for use on dark materials?

A. — Mix the starch with cold tea. A substitute for starch to be used on black or dark materials is a solution of one teaspoon of gelatin in a quart of water.

Q. — How can I "skid - proof" a pair of bookends which are continually clipping and sliding out of place?

A. — If you'll glue a wide rubber band on the bottom of each bookend, this will usually immobilize them.

Under Republican Leadership

GOP's Platform Pledges Efforts For 'Just Peace'

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Republicans roared approval early today of a platform pledging a new national leadership—under the GOP—will push "for a just peace in the world, for dependable progress for all our people, and for a new serenity and unity in this land."

With these words Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, performing as actor, orator and chairman of the platform-writing committee, won a final shout of endorsement after two hours of speeches at the national convention.

The leading presidential candidates—Richard M. Nixon, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and Gov. Ronald Reagan—already had bestowed their blessing on the manfesto which calls for peace without surrender and de-Americanization of the war in Vietnam and a crusade against crime and causes of social ills at home.

Michigan's Gov. George Romney took the podium to declare he had wanted a plank against excessive economic power in the hands of business and labor groups. But he then urged adoption without change of this "excellent platform" for the sake of avoiding a floor battle.

Later, just at the end of the night session, a Kinston, N.C., delegate, R. T. Hood Jr., pushed toward the rostrum with an undisclosed amendment. Rep. Gerald Ford of Michigan, the convention chairman, ruled Hood had taken the floor too late to offer his plank. Hood would not tell newsmen what his proposal involved.

Instead of reading through all 13,000 words of the platform drafted by his 102-man committee last week, Dirksen roused the convention hall throng right at the start by throwing on the floor what he indicated were set speeches.

Then the silver-haired senator launched into a 25-minute oration of his own, interrupted by applause more than a dozen times.

"Oh, how cynical, how mocking, that political slogan—'The Great Society,'" Dirksen exclaimed to Republican shouts.

"Never has an administration so disregarded the limits of our resources, our patience, our unwillingness—indeed, our inability—to police and sustain a bellicose and insatiable world. Open-hearted, yes open-handed, we long have been—but my friends, the time to reassess our generosity is now. . . .

Those on the sponsoring committee will be Mrs. Eileen Brown, program; Mrs Lois McHenry, ways and means; Mrs. Virginia Conkle, hospitality and special events, and Mrs. Mary McCullough, civic service.

Beaver County Buys Tract For Addition To Courthouse

BEAVER — County Commissioners Tuesday completed negotiations for the purchase of the Josephine Hartwick property at the rear of the Courthouse for $45,000 to be used as part of the site of a new courthouse addition and parking areas.

The tract adjoins the James Anderson property which was purchased by the county last spring for the project.

The commissioners accepted the resignation of John D. Prather of Monaca as chairman and member of the County Housing Authority on which he has served since 1949. He has been chairman since 1965.

He listed "personal reasons with regret" for leaving.

Approval was given for a driver improvement school starting Oct. 5 at the Community College at Freedom for drivers sentenced on traffic violations by the courts. The state pays up to $125 a month for instructors.

Check Conducted On Traffic Flow Of Chester Span

An origin - destination survey of motorists using the Chester Bridge was undertaken Tuesday night by the Ohio Department of Highways.

A spokesman said the survey is a specific check on the traffic flow in connection with a general study of trans - Ohio River travel in the district.

West Virginia has retained a consulting engineering firm to study the costs, feasibility and proposed location of a span to replace the Chester Bridge.

The spokesman at New Philadelphia headquarters of the Ohio Department of Highways Division 11 said other survey crews have been making checks in district locations as part of a regular traffic count study held periodically by the Department.

64-Man Delegation In Caucus

Rocky, Nixon Hold Firm To Pennsylvania Claims

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The Rockefeller and Nixon camps held firm to their conflicting claims of strength in Pennsylvania today as the state 64-man delegation planned its second caucus to the Republican National Convention.

Gov. Raymond P. Shafer, selected to place the name of New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller in nomination for the presidency, said he thought it likely the first poll of the delegation would be taken after the bloc had heard from the three preselected to place the name of New resentatives.

Shafer's office said Rockefeller was expected to appear personally, and California Gov. Ronald Reagan might appear also. Former State Secretary of Public Welfare Arlin Adams was scheduled to represent Richard M. Nixon, aides said.

Shafer's ranking assistants held out the hope that his appearance before the convention wuold swing another three or four more delegates to Rockefeller because of the prestige involved in the action.

But Rep. Jame Fulton, Nixon's most vocal backer within the delegation, insisted this would not hapen.

"We've checked it and it has had no impact at all," Fulton said. "We're sure of at least 20 votes on the first ballot and the governor's people give us credit for 26. We think they are within two of being right."

Fulton declined to say whether it was two more or two less than 26.

Sen. Hugh Scott challenged Fulton's estimate, saying: "I wouldn't think it would go that high."

Shafer has long insisted that he had at least 40 delegates for Rockefeller.

Shafer and his predecessor, former Gov. William W. Scranton, spent much of Tuesday in meeting with individual delegates in hopes of cajolling them to follow the governor's lead to Rockefeller.

Shafer called upon Mayor John V. Lindsay of New York to add some enthusiasm to the delegation.

Packing the assembly room with Rockefeller — and some Lindsay — partisans, the governor accused the Nixon forces of seeking a psychological advantage by suggesting he abandon Rockefeller nad return to his favorite son role.

"I rejected this proposal because I am in a fight to help Gov. Nelson Rockefeller win the presidential nomination," he said, "A return to the favorite-son status would only weaken that fight."

Lindsay, who was warmly received, praised Shafer's stand by declaring: "His position of leadership on behalf of my governor is one factor which is going to guarantee his nomination."

Fulton denied the charge that Nixon backers were behind the favorite-son idea, however.

"We certainly wouldn't be doing it because it was nothing more than a stop-Nixon movement," he said. "This is the silly season, but how silly can you get?"

Scott appeared before the convention Tuesday night to praise the party's campaign platform as a document which coupled a firmness against the criminal with a concerted attack on economic and social injustices.

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Republicans roared approval early today of a platform pledging a new national leadership—under the GOP—will push "for a just peace in the world, for dependable progress for all our people, and for a new serenity and unity in this land."

64-Man Delegation In Caucus

Rocky, Nixon Hold Firm To Pennsylvania Claims

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The Rockefeller and Nixon camps held firm to their conflicting claims of strength in Pennsylvania today as the state 64-man delegation planned its second caucus to the Republican National Convention.

Gov. Raymond P. Shafer, selected to place the name of New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller in nomination for the presidency, said he thought it likely the first poll of the delegation would be taken after the bloc had heard from the three preselected to place the name of New resentatives.

Shafer's office said Rockefeller was expected to appear personally, and California Gov. Ronald Reagan might appear also. Former State Secretary of Public Welfare Arlin Adams was scheduled to represent Richard M. Nixon, aides said.

Shafer's ranking assistants held out the hope that his appearance before the convention wuold swing another three or four more delegates to Rockefeller because of the prestige involved in the action.

But Rep. Jame Fulton, Nixon's most vocal backer within the delegation, insisted this would not hapen.

"We've checked it and it has had no impact at all," Fulton said. "We're sure of at least 20 votes on the first ballot and the governor's people give us credit for 26. We think they are within two of being right."

Fulton declined to say whether it was two more or two less than 26.

Sen. Hugh Scott challenged Fulton's estimate, saying: "I wouldn't think it would go that high."

Shafer has long insisted that he had at least 40 delegates for Rockefeller.

Shafer and his predecessor, former Gov. William W. Scranton, spent much of Tuesday in meeting with individual delegates in hopes of cajolling them to follow the governor's lead to Rockefeller.

Shafer called upon Mayor John V. Lindsay of New York to add some enthusiasm to the delegation.

Packing the assembly room with Rockefeller — and some Lindsay — partisans, the governor accused the Nixon forces of seeking a psychological advantage by suggesting he abandon Rockefeller nad return to his favorite son role.

"I rejected this proposal because I am in a fight to help Gov. Nelson Rockefeller win the presidential nomination," he said. "A return to the favorite-son status would only weaken that fight."

Lindsay, who was warmly received, praised Shafer's stand by declaring: "His position of leadership on behalf of my governor is one factor which is going to guarantee his nomination."

Fulton denied the charge that Nixon backers were behind the favorite-son idea, however.

"We certainly wouldn't be doing it because it was nothing more than a stop-Nixon movement," he said. "This is the silly season, but how silly can you get?"

Scott appeared before the convention Tuesday night to praise the party's campaign platform as a document which coupled a firmness against the criminal with a concerted attack on economic and social injustices.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

Underdeveloped countries double their population in 20 to 30 years while the population of developed nations doubles in roughly 50 to 120 years. The earth's inability to provide decent living for projected world population increases is underscored by the fact that the United States, with only 1-15th of the world's population, consumes more than half of the raw materials used in the world each year.

Motor vehicle registrations in the United States increased by 4,099,000 during 1967. There was a total of 101,626,000 cars, trucks and buses registered as of Jan. 1, 1968, compared with 97,527,000 a year earlier.

Check Conducted On Traffic Flow Of Chester Span

An origin - destination survey of motorists using the Chester Bridge was undertaken Tuesday night by the Ohio Department of Highways.

A spokesman said the survey is a specific check on the traffic flow in connection with a general study of trans - Ohio River travel in the district.

West Virginia has retained a consulting engineering firm to study the costs, feasibility and proposed location of a span to replace the Chester Bridge.

The spokesman at New Philadelphia headquarters of the Ohio Department of Highways Division 11 said other survey crews have been making checks in district locations as part of a regular traffic count study held periodically by the Department.

Not In Spite Of Itself

It is more than just a comforting news note that the gap created in the Diamond scenery by the razing of the fire-damaged Siff Building is to be filled by a new structure.

There had been despair among not a few East Liverpool residents than anyone would ever be willing to undertake a construction project on such a site when ample building room and parking space are available in the outlying areas.

But William Blair of the Tri-State Producing Co., who has recognized the potential in this district and has been willing to invest his money and life in it, joins other men and women who do more than talk and write about their convictions.

We heard a comment a few months ago that "East Liverpool is going to grow and succeed in spite of itself."

The truth is that a large amount of time and effort is being expended by some businessmen, some civic leaders and some city officials at giving meaning to the word "progress" for this community. Yet there has to be greater action on the part of many more before the pace of this progress can be speeded.

One has only to look about to realize the changes in the appearance of the city, the improvement in the civic attitudes in the past five or six years.

East Liverpool is going to continue to modernize, improve and upgrade itself in the years to come, in some places "in spite of itself," but in more places because of the sincere efforts of people who are willing to work at it both for their own interest and those of the general community.

Jobs And Progress

As the proof of the pudding is in the eating, the proof of Ohio's "Jobs and Progress" theme is in the location of new plants in the state and the expansion of existing facilities.

According to information from the State Development Department, the number of Ohio plants that have expanded and the number that have moved into Ohio total 4,300.

An excellent achievement.

Negro Veterans On The Move

A budding organization of Negro veterans from Vietnam attests to the desire on the part of many black Americans to find an alternative to the violence preached by ghetto extremists.

HIS PROGRAM is divided in to two major activities: sending teams into the ghetto to make their pitch that "violence will solve nothing; it only breeds more violence" and providing job training in 24-hour schools.

Mr. Wright feels strongly about the direction in the ghetto today. He puts it this way: "Anyone who tries to solve the black man's problem through violence is an enemy to the race and to the country."

So far, chapters of NVFV are operating in Oklahoma City, Spokane, Wash., and Los Angeles. A total of 5,000 servicemen have signed up and more applications arrive in Chicago daily.

The movement has received support from both black and white enthusiasts — as well it should.

Who knows better than a soldier the battlefield's offerings of hatred, killing, heart-sickness, frustration and futility? Who else is better qualified to judge the merits of mass killing as a solution to a problem? And who is able to judge the depth of ghetto despair better than a Negro soldier?

When an American serviceman joins the NVFV, he signs this pledge:

"WE WILL ALWAYS strive to use our training and skill to make a reality the American dream of a better way of life where all men can live together no matter what their race, creed or color. We are coming home to build a better America. So help us God."

Exciting, explicit and hopeful words.

The members of NVFV are clearly on record that they have not risked their lives in Vietnam to permit militant extremists tear their country asunder.

Every other American should make a personal commitment to aid them in their worthy endeavor.

Paradise Lost?

Though we keep trying to find a true paradise on this spinning globe of ours, we never quite suceed. Always there is something about each new Utopia that falls short of the desired perfection.

For example Florida, with its white beaches, blue skies, warm water, tropical trees, flowers and fruits, and moderate temperatures, represents the next thing to paradise in the eyes of many residents of less hospitable climes.

But even then situations occur which give the chambers of commerce nightmares.

Daytona Beach, one of the top spots of the Sunshine State and famous for its sandy beach, can testify to that. This past week hundreds of bathers frolicking in the surf were driven from the water and into first aid stations.

The ugly red welts on their bodies testified to the potency of the stings administered by the jellyfish which had invaded the coastal waters. For four days the aquatic plague held sway, making life momentarily miserable for the swimmers.

Paradise? The search goes on.

Polls To Be Investigated?

After all the confusion created by the publication of the Gallup and Harris polls last week, it just had to happen — a call for a congressional investigation.

Some of the lawmakers simply are not satisfied with the explanations offered for the contradictory estimates as to whether Richard Nixon or Nelson Rockefeller would run best against the leading Democratic hopefuls.

Rep. John Moss, a California Democrat, has said "the time has come for someone to step in and investigate the polling practices." He has introduced legislation to establish a 10-member House committees to investigate opinion polls.

Rep. Lucien Nedzi, Michigan Democrat, another sponsor of the legislation, is the author of another "truth-in-polling" bill. He, too, is critical of the technique used to attempt to reconcile the two polls published last week.

The two polls have made many Americans wonder. Many, mindful of all the credibility gaps we have been having lately, are somewhat suspicious of the polls.

The measure proposed by Rep. Moss provides criminal penalties if it is found that a poll is manipulated or its results falsified.

Thoughts For Today

"Enter by the narrow gate; for the gate is wide and the way is easy, that leads to destruction, and those who enter by it are many." —Matthew 7:13.

"Life is meant to be lived and curiosity must be kept alive. One must never, for whatever reason, turn his back on life." — Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt.

"We must work the works of him who sent me, while it is day; night comes, when no one can work."—John 9:4.

"Be not quick to anger, for anger lodges in the bosom of fools."—Eccl. 7:9.

"For every minute you are angry, you lose 60 seconds of happiness." — Ralph Waldo Emerson, American essayist and poet.

"The waters wear away the stones; the torrents wash away the soil of the earth; so thou destroyest the hope of man."—Job 14:19.

Muscles We Haven't Even Used Yet

VICTOR RIESEL

U.S. Angers Spanish Labor

MADRID — For whom the bell tolls is mighty difficult to discern here after retracing old battlefields. But it is certain that the bells toll less furiously today in General Franco's Spain.

Victor Riesel

Just the other day the gentle people up on Pamplona where the bulls run dedicated a street and a bust to Ernest Hemingway. Old gray bear's widow, Mary, and friend, William Walton, intimate of the late Jack Kennedy, flew over for the fiesta. No one in the infrapower structure of the corporate state cared much, though there was the time when Hemingway would have been lanced at 20 paces in some public plaza if he were found this side of the Pyrenees.

There's symbolism in that bust of the old anti-Franco fighter. Totality in Spain has lost its steam and on all sides there's resentment over what they say is the Western World's refusal to see this, and at least treat this land as well as the U.S. and Western Europe treat Tito's Yugoslavia, Kadar's Hungary and Breshnev's Russia.

Forces inside Spain want to dialogue with the West, and in those forces is the burgeoning of a story the world will regret not watching carefully as it begins to escalate.

THERE IS ONE FORCE which rarely gets into the public prints though its theological-political concept has begun to leave its imprint on unwatched history.

It is the Opus Dei (God's Work) organization I write of here —a semi-secret, secular phalanx of dedicated men who run a university, a business school, and who are powerful in banking, industry, the press and in General Franco's cabinet.

Though not yet felt in the U.S., Opus Dei is international. It wants to bring Spain closer to the West. It wants more the image of De Gaulle than of the old Blue Shirts.

And it is denounced by leaders of Spain's version of a labor movement, the 13 million-member Organizacion Sindical, made up of 28 syndicates of unionists and management alike.

There could not have been such conflict in the Spain of years ago. From the inside Spain is different from its external image.

Certainly "El Caudillo," General Francisco Franco, is in control. Certainly at 75 he knows that he'll make way for some successor in a few years.

He and he alone will decide on that successor unless fate makes the decision for him. Judging from his vigorous appearances at airport dedications, art shows and championship soccer games, he has a while yet.

And certainly this still nominally is a single-party state. One feels it as one sits with the sophisticated Jose Solis Ruiz, "president" of Spain's labor organization, Minister Secretary General of the National Movement and vice president of the Council of the National Movement (the single party's parliamentary body).

Not only is he Spain's labor chief, not only is he nominally second to General Franco, but he is charged with directing Spain's sports, youth and women's organizations, etc.

But it is a new Spain and the penalties are new too. Ten miners who sat down in the Llamas pits were sentenced to two-to-six months and fined between $71 and $213.

Strikes are legal, yet illegal. They no longer are called strikes (huelgas) but are known as "conflictos social" — social conflicts. There have been over 500 walkouts in the past few years. There was a Barcelona longshoremen's stoppage when I arrived here recently.

There are slowdowns, 10-minute stoppages, and 5 minutes of silence, as labor demonstrations. The workers refuse to take buses, march home en masse, and thus put on a union parade.

There have been tough metal strikes, and when the government feels that production really is threatened, or that the stoppages after a while reflect on the head of state, the government moves in.

There is a network of underground union organizations. Not too long ago one of its leaders was tried for anti-state activity. In open court he denounced the government, the court and General Franco. He was sentenced to six years in prison with one day off for every day he works while incarcerated. Thus he will serve two days in one, and be out in some three years.

This is a tough rap. But five years ago he would have been shot or jailed for life.

THERE'S NO DOUBT the laws have been tough. There's no doubt that there is unrest. There's no doubt that, for example, 94 men attempting to organize May Day demonstrations were arrested. But 75 of them were out on bail the next day.

And so the Spanish labor men say they are working their way out of ancient history and an ancient civil war during which a million fell. They say that any word from the West, any word from American unions, any sign of recognition would strengthen them in what they say in the slow move towards democracy.

They say that even if the Western unions in general and the majority of American unions in particular don't trust them, why don't they come to Spain to see for themselves the "progress" of Spanish unions.

The Spanish ask why they are being boycotted at the same time that Walter Reuther permits one of his vice presidents to take a United Auto Workers delegation for a 10-day visit to Hungary, the land where Soviet troops shot down freedom fighters.

The Spaniards ask why labor leaders in the Western World feel it is right to fraternize with Communist labor organizations in Budapest and Moscow, but wrong to start a dialogue in Spain.

This, they say, is the Spain of today and not of the civil war of "ancient times."

Letter To The Editor

I can heartily sanction the words of praise we have been reading in The Review pertaining to the splendid care given those in City Hospital of East Liverpool.

During my long illness while a patient there, I was given the most thoughtful and kind consideration by the administration, those in the nursing profession, the nurses aides and employes. Together with the attending doctors, the chaplain and ministers, the many expressions of love from many others—God used to aid in my recovery.

The courtesies granted my wife and children were deeply appreciated. I can say the same regarding the Extended Care Center to which I had been transferred for a brief while.

My wife, who was also a patient in the City Hospital for two weeks during my confinement, joins me in saying, "May God bless each one who helped and encouraged us to carry on!"

This 'n That

DAVID LAWRENCE

GOP 'Unity'

It has been expressed in such broad and yet politically meaningful terms in the party platform just formulated that Nixon or Rockefeller or Reagan could accept every plant without embarrassment.

The document doesn't even use the words "Democratic Party" in its criticisms, but speaks negatively only about "the administration."

The Republican nominee will not be prevented in any way, of course, from amplifying or interpreting what is contained in the platform. Its framers have phrased the planks astutely to last at least through the campaign.

The Vietnam War plank was the most difficult of all, because contingencies—such as a cease-fire—could develop during the campaign which would outdate some points in the plank.

The Republicans merely say they want the South Vietnamese people to take more of the responsibility for participation in the war, and that the United States desires "neither peace at any price for a camouflaged surrender of legitimate United States or allied interests."

So far as fighting the war itself is concerned, the Republicans naturally claim that grave errors of strategy were made and that a "prlonged war of attrition" has resulted.

There is one statement, moreover, which has in it considerable significance. The foreign policy plank of the platform says:

"NO LONGER will foreign aid activities range free of our foreign policy. Nations hostile to this country will receive no assistance from the United States. We will not provide aid of any kind of countries which aid and abet the war efforts of North Vietnam.

"Only when Communist nations prove by actual deeds that they genuinely seek world peace and will live in harmony with the rest of the world, will we support expansion of East-West trade."

This is a warning to the Soviet Union and to Red China. In fact, the platform says flatly that "under existing conditions, we cannot favor recognition of Communist China or its admission to the United Nations."

On the question of future defense, the Republican platform unhesitatingly declares that the administration has had the singular notion that "standing still" in armament building would bring peace. It adds:

"Not retention of American superiority but parity with the Soviet Union has been made the controlling doctrine in many critical areas.

"We have frittered away superior military capabilities, enabling the Soviets to narrow their defense gap, in some areas to outstrip us, and to move to cancel our lead entirely by the early '70s."

These are not issues that in themselves will be discussed extensively in the campaign. But the over-all impression which the platform seeks to give is that the Republicans, if successful in the November election, are not going to appease the Communists or stop spending whatever is necessary to maintain the safety and security of the United States in the armament race.

On domestic affairs, the platform provides that the new administration will be firm in its attitude toward law enforcement and will work in cooperation with the states and cities, but there is no indication that the federal governmen under a Republican administration will move in to put down local disorders.

The platform says:

"We simultaneously support decisive action to quell civil disorder, relying primarily on state and local governments to deal with these conditions."

THE EMPHASIS rather is on federal aid in rebuilding the cities, improving transportation, health and education, and creating jobs.

The Republicans in their platform have gone on record against wage and price controls. Although the platform has some general comments on the importance of more congressional restrictions on federal expensitures and contains a promise to "restore fiscal integrity and sound monetary policies," it does not reveal any formula by which such objectives can be attained.

What the platform makers have done is to write a declaration that they can use in the campaign to promise better living conditions and economic stability in America.

But economists will wonder whether a healthy economy can be achieved as long as political considerations are so closely related to government spending.

Through The Years

TWENTY YEARS AGO — A proposal that would have meant the first step toward replacing East Liverpool's mayor-council municipal government with a charter form was rejected by a 421-vote margin in a special election.

Harold F. Martin Jr. of LeMoyne, Ohio, was appointed cage coach, assistant football coach and boys' physical education instructor by the East Palestine Board of Education.

TEN YEARS AGO — Chester's July storm damage was estimated at $66,066.

Paradise Lost?

Though we keep trying to find a true paradise on this spinning globe of ours, we never quite suceed. Always there is something about each new Utopia that falls short of the desired perfection.

For example Florida, with its white beaches, blue skies, warm water, tropical trees, flowers and fruits, and moderate temperatures, represents the next thing to paradise in the eyes of many residents of less hospitable climes.

But even then situations occur which give the chambers of commerce nightmares.

Daytona Beach, one of the top spots of the Sunshine State and famous for its sandy beach, can testify to that. This past week hundreds of bathers frolicking in the surf were driven from the water and into first aid stations.

The ugly red welts on their bodies testified to the potency of the stings administered by the jellyfish which had invaded the coastal waters. For four days the aquatic plague held sway, making life momentarily miserable for the swimmers.

Paradise? The search goes on.

Polls To Be Investigated?

After all the confusion created by the publication of the Gallup and Harris polls last week, it just had to happen — a call for a congressional investigation.

Some of the lawmakers simply are not satisfied with the explanations offered for the contradictory estimates as to whether Richard Nixon or Nelson Rockefeller would run best against the leading Democratic hopefuls.

Rep. John Moss, a California Democrat, has said "the time has come for someone to step in and investigate the polling practices." He has introduced legislation to establish a 10-member House committees to investigate opinion polls.

Rep. Lucien Nedzi, Michigan Democrat, another sponsor of the legislation, is the author of another "truth-in-polling" bill. He, too, is critical of the technique used to attempt to reconcile the two polls published last week.

The two polls have made many Americans wonder. Many, mindful of all the credibility gaps we have been having lately, are somewhat suspicious of the polls.

The measure proposed by Rep. Moss provides criminal penalties if it is found that a poll is manipulated or its results falsified.

Thoughts For Today

"Enter by the narrow gate: for the gate is wide and the way is easy, that leads to destruction, and those who enter by it are many." —Matthew 7:13.

"Life is meant to be lived and curiosity must be kept alive. One must never, for whatever reason, turn his back on life." — Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt.

"We must work the works of him who sent me, while it is day; night comes, when no one can work."—John 9:4.

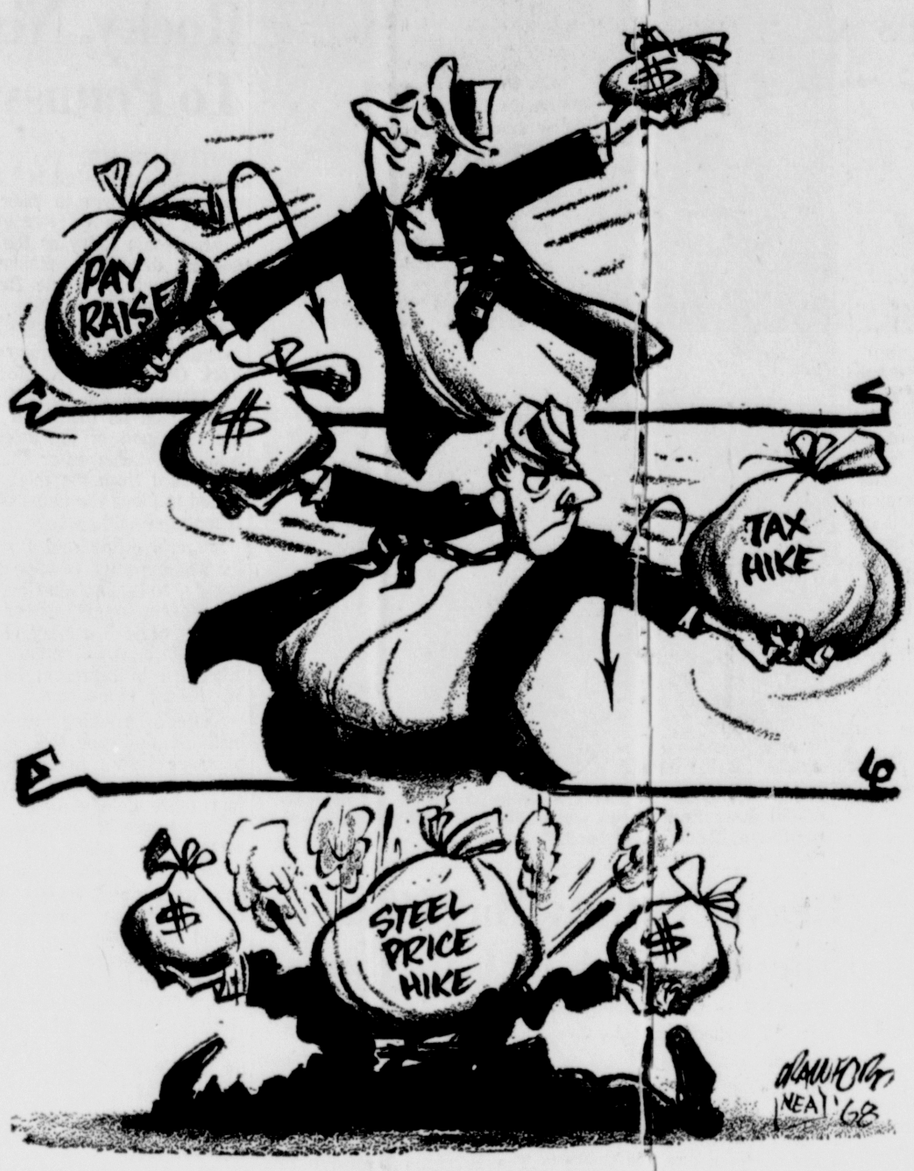
"Be not quick to anger, for anger lodges in the bosom of fools."—Eccl. 7:9.

"For every minute you are angry, you lose 60 seconds of happiness." — Ralph Waldo Emerson, American essayist and poet.

"The waters wear away the stones; the torrents wash away the soil of the earth; so thou destroyest the hope of man."—Job 14:19.

Muscles We Haven't Even Used Yet



VICTOR RIESEL

U.S. Angers Spanish Labor

MADRID — For whom the bell tolls is mighty difficult to discern here after retracing old battlefields. But it is certain that the bells toll less furiously today in General Franco's Spain.

Victor Riesel

Just the other day the gentle people up on Pamplona where the bulls run dedicated a street and a bust to Ernest Hemingway. Old gray bear's widow, Mary, and friend, William Walton, intimate of the late Jack Kennedy, flew over for the fiesta. No one in the infrapower structure of the corporate state cared much, though there was the time when Hemingway would have been lanced at 20 paces in some public plaza if he were found this side of the Pyrenees.

There's symbolism in that bust of the old anti-Franco fighter. Totality in Spain has lost its steam and on all sides there's resentment over what they say is the Western World's refusal to see this, and at least treat this land as well as the U.S. and Western Europe treat Tito's Yugoslavia, Kadar's Hungary and Breshnev's Russia.

Forces inside Spain want to dialogue with the West, and in those forces is the burgeoning of a story the world will regret not watching carefully as it begins to escalate.

THERE IS ONE FORCE which rarely gets into the public prints though its theological-political concept has begun to leave its imprint on unwatched history.

It is the Opus Dei (God's Work) organization I write of here —a semi-secret, secular phalanx of dedicated men who run a university, a business school, and who are powerful in banking, industry, the press and in General Franco's cabinet.

Though not yet felt in the U.S., Opus Dei is international. It wants to bring Spain closer to the West. It wants more the image of De Gaulle than of the old Blue Shirts.

And it is denounced by leaders of Spain's version of a labor movement, the 13 million-member Organizacion Sindical, made up of 28 syndicates of unionists and management alike.

There could not have been such conflict in the Spain of years ago. From the inside Spain is different from its external image.

Certainly "El Caudillo," General Francisco Franco, is in control. Certainly at 75 he knows that he'll make way for some successor in a few years.

He and he alone will decide on that successor unless fate makes the decision for him. Judging from his vigorous appearances at airport dedications, art shows and championship soccer games, he has a while yet.

And certainly this still nominally is a single-party state. One feels it as one sits with the sophisticated Jose Solis Ruiz, "president" of Spain's labor organization, Minister Secretary General of the National Movement and vice president of the Council of the National Movement (the single party's parliamentary body).

Not only is he Spain's labor chief, not only is he nominally second to General Franco, but he is charged with directing Spain's sports, youth and women's organizations, etc.

But it is a new Spain and the penalties are new too. Ten miners who sat down in the Llamas pits were sentenced to two-to-six months and fined between $71 and $213.

Strikes are legal, yet illegal. They no longer are called strikes (huelgas) but are known as "conflictos social" — social conflicts. There have been over 500 walkouts in the past few years. There was a Barcelona longshoremen's stoppage when I arrived here recently.

There are slowdowns, 10-minute stoppages, and 5 minutes of silence, as labor demonstrations. The workers refuse to take buses, march home en masse, and thus put on a union parade.

There have been tough metal strikes, and when the government feels that production really is threatened, or that the stoppages after a while reflect on the head of state, the government moves in.

There is a network of underground union organizations. Not too long ago one of its leaders was tried for anti-state activity. In open court he denounced the government, the court and General Franco. He was sentenced to six years in prison with one day off for every day he works while incarcerated. Thus he will serve two days in one, and be out in some three years.

This is a tough rap. But five years ago he would have been shot or jailed for life.

THERE'S NO DOUBT the laws have been tough. There's no doubt that there is unrest. There's no doubt that, for example, 94 men attempting to organize May Day demonstrations were arrested. But 75 of them were out on bail the next day.

And so the Spanish labor men say they are working their way out of ancient history and an ancient civil war during which a million fell. They say that any word from the West, any word from American unions, any sign of recognition would strengthen them in what they say in the slow move towards democracy.

They say that even if the Western unions in general and the majority of American unions in particular don't trust them, why don't they come to Spain to see for themselves the "progress" of Spanish unions.

The Spanish ask why they are being boycotted at the same time that Walter Reuther permits one of his vice presidents to take a United Auto Workers delegation for a 10-day visit to Hungary, the land where Soviet troops shot down freedom fighters.

The Spaniards ask why labor leaders in the Western World feel it is right to fraternize with Communist labor organizations in Budapest and Moscow, but wrong to start a dialogue in Spain.

This, they say, is the Spain of today and not of the civil war of "ancient times."

Letter To The Editor

I can heartily sanction the words of praise we have been reading in The Review pertaining to the splendid care given those in City Hospital of East Liverpool.

During my long illness while a patient there, I was given the most thoughtful and kind consideration by the administration, those in the nursing profession, the nurses aides and employes. Together with the attending doctors, the chaplain and ministers, the many expressions of love from many others—God used to aid in my recovery.

The courtesies granted my wife and children were deeply appreciated. I can say the same regarding the Extended Care Center to which I had been transferred for a brief while.

My wife, who was also a patient in the City Hospital for two weeks during my confinement, joins me in saying, "May God bless each one who helped and encouraged us to carry on!"

Aluminum can be produced in more kinds of useful forms than any other metal. The five leading uses of aluminum in order of importance are for building materials, military supplies, transportation, consumer products, and electrical supplies.

DAVID LAWRENCE

GOP 'Unity'

It has been expressed in such broad and yet politically meaningful terms in the party platform just formulated that Nixon or Rockefeller or Reagan could accept every plant without embarrassment.

The document doesn't even use the words "Democratic Party" in its criticisms, but speaks negatively only about "the administration."

The Republican nominee will not be prevented in any way, of course, from amplifying or interpreting what is contained in the platform. Its framers have phrased the planks astutely to last at least through the campaign.

The Vietnam War plank was the most difficult of all, because contingencies—such as a cease-fire—could develop during the campaign which would outdate some points in the plank.

The Republicans merely say they want the South Vietnamese people to take more of the responsibility for participation in the war, and that the United States desires "neither peace at any price for a camouflaged surrender of legitimate United States or allied interests."

So far as fighting the war itself is concerned, the Republicans naturally claim that grave errors of strategy were made and that a "prlonged war of attrition" has resulted.

There is one statement, moreover, which has in it considerable significance. The foreign policy plank of the platform says:

"NO LONGER will foreign aid activities range free of our foreign policy. Nations hostile to this country will receive no assistance from the United States. We will not provide aid of any kind of countries which aid and abet the war efforts of North Vietnam.

"Only when Communist nations prove by actual deeds that they genuinely seek world peace and will live in harmony with the rest of the world, will we support expansion of East-West trade."

This is a warning to the Soviet Union and to Red China. In fact, the platform says flatly that "under existing conditions, we cannot favor recognition of Communist China or its admission to the United Nations."

On the question of future defense, the Republican platform unhesitatingly declares that the administration has had the singular notion that "standing still" in armament building would bring peace. It adds:

"Not retention of American superiority but parity with the Soviet Union has been made the controlling doctrine in many critical areas.

"We have frittered away superior military capabilities, enabling the Soviets to narrow their defense gap, in some areas to outstrip us, and to move to cancel our lead entirely by the early '70s."

These are not issues that in themselves will be discussed extensively in the campaign. But the over-all impression which the platform seeks to give is that the Republicans, if successful in the November election, are not going to appease the Communists or stop spending whatever is necessary to maintain the safety and security of the United States in the armament race.

On domestic affairs, the platform provides that the new administration will be firm in its attitude toward law enforcement and will work in cooperation with the states and cities, but there is no indication that the federal government under a Republican administration will move in to put down local disorders.

The platform says:

"We simultaneously support decisive action to quell civil disorder, relying primarily on state and local governments to deal with these conditions."

THE EMPHASIS rather is on federal aid in rebuilding the cities, improving transportation, health and education, and creating jobs.

The Republicans in their platform have gone on record against wage and price controls. Although the platform has some general comments on the importance of more congressional restrictions on federal expensitures and contains a promise to "restore fiscal integrity and sound monetary policies," it does not reveal any formula by which such objectives can be attained.

What the platform makers have done is to write a declaration that they can use in the campaign to promise better living conditions and economic stability in America.

But economists will wonder whether a healthy economy can be achieved as long as political considerations are so closely related to government spending.

Through The Years

TWENTY YEARS AGO — A proposal that would have meant the first step toward replacing East Liverpool's mayor-council municipal government with a charter form was rejected by a 421-vote margin in a special election.

Harold F. Martin Jr. of LeMoyne, Ohio, was appointed cage coach, assistant football coach and boys' physical education instructor by the East Palestine Board of Education.

TEN YEARS AGO — Chester's July storm damage was estimated at $66,066.

terford and Negley areas were among those hit.

Sheriff's Deputy Cy Wellman reported tree limbs were blown down at Brookside Park and said at 3:15 a. m. he called for a road crew to cut up a fallen tree on Route 170 south of Negley near the Ferris Coal Co.

He said hail fell in some areas during the storm.

East Liverpool firemen reported lightning struck the corner of a building above Heimie's Cigar store at 523 Washington St. during the storm. Bricks were knocked loose and the area was roped off as a precautionary measure.

Deadline To Fall Today For Lone Judge's Position

It's the deadline for entering for the post of judge of the Southwest Area County Court at Lisbon. Judge J. L. McDonald, the incumbent, already has entered for another four - year term. He is the only entrant to date.

Judge McDonald is seeking his fourth term. A Lisbon area resident, he served as county prosecuting attorney from 1949 to 1956. He has been judge of tht county court since Jan. 1, 1959.

The terms of the other two county court judges run until Dec. 31, 1970. The posts are held by D. Barry Dickson, who presides in the Eastern District Court at East Palestine, and Edward C. Greenamyer of Leetonia, who is judge of the Northwest Area Court in Salem.

The August filing deadline is for nonpartisan candidates. Once in two years, the election board experiences a rush at the late summer deadline with filing of candidates for posts as township trustee and clerk, school board members and officials of villages under 2,000 population.

Motorist Fined

chard A. Edmond, 18, of 505 Ketchel Ave., Newell, was fined $10 and costs by Squire John D. Herron Tuesday for failure to obey a traffic officer's signal. He was cited by sheriff's deputies.

Area Youth Electrocuted As He Uses Drill At Home

EAST ROCHESTER—Wayne Galen (Butch) Garner, 14, of Minerva RD 2 was electrocuted about 1:20 p.m. Wednesday while using an electric drill with sander attachment.

Dr. William Kolozsi of Salem, Columbiana County coroner, said the death was accidental and occurred at the Garner home on W. Egypt Rd. north of East Rochester.

Sheriff's Deputy Robert Wellington investigated after Dr. Samuel Weir, Minerva physician, notified Sheriff Russell J. Van Fossan of the accident.

The boy was sanding a pickup truck parked outside the kitchen door. His parents, Audra W. and Erma Kerr Garner were in the house.

They told the deputy they heard their son shout, "Help me!" and ran outside to see him face down on the ground with the drill under him, still running. Mrs. Garner ran back into the house and pulled the plug.

The parents tried to revive the boy while waiting for the doctor. He pronounced Wayne dead.

An electrician, called by Wellington to examine the drill, said it was "hotter than a firecracker."

Wayne completed the sixth grade at East Rochester school this year and would have gone to Minerva Junior High School in September.

He was born Feb. 15, 1954, in Canton and resided in the Minerva-East Rochester area all his life. He was a member of the East Rochester United Methodist Church and the Junior High Sunday School class.

Services will be held at 1:30 p.m. Friday at the Gotschall-Hutchison Funeral Home in Minerva, where friends may call from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. Thursday.

The Rev. Robert Randolph of the East Rochester church will officiate. Burial will be in Sandy Valley Cemetery at Waynesburg.

Reservists Denied Petition To Be Released From Call Up

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — A federal judge has denied a petition by 113 Ohio Army Reservists to be released from active duty.

In a 14-page opinion Tuesday, Judge Frank A. Kaufman of U.S. District Court ruled that a law authorizing the President to call reservists was applicable to them even though they enlisted before the law became effective on Oct. 15, 1966.

The Reservists, stationed at nearby Ft. Meade, Md., had challenged the constitutionality of the law and contended Congress could not delegate to the President the power to call them to active duty.

Their attorneys contended the men had a contract with the U.S. government under the law in effect when they joined the reserves, and that it was volated and abridged by the application of the 1966 statute.

terford and Negley areas were among those hit.

Sheriff's Deputy Cy Wellman reported tree limbs were blown down at Brookside Park and said at 3:15 a. m. he called for a road crew to cut up a fallen tree on Route 170 south of Negley near the Ferris Coal Co.

He said hail fell in some areas during the storm.

East Liverpool firemen reported lightning struck the corner of a building above Heimie's Cigar store at 523 Washington St. during the storm. Bricks were knocked loose and the area was roped off as a precautionary measure.

Deadline To Fall Today For Lone Judge's Position

It's the deadline for entering for the post of judge of the Southwest Area County Court at Lisbon. Judge J. L. McDonald, the incumbent, already has entered for another four - year term. He is the only entrant to date.

Judge McDonald is seeking his fourth term. A Lisbon area resident, he served as county prosecuting attorney from 1949 to 1956. He has been judge of tht county court since Jan. 1, 1959.

The terms of the other two county court judges run until Dec. 31, 1970. The posts are held by D. Barry Dickson, who presides in the Eastern District Court at East Palestine, and Edward C. Greenamyer of Leetonia, who is judge of the Northwest Area Court in Salem.

The August filing deadline is for nonpartisan candidates. Once in two years, the election board experiences a rush at the late summer deadline with filing of candidates for posts as township trustee and clerk, school board members and officials of villages under 2,000 population.

Motorist Fined

chard A. Edmond, 18, of 505 Ketchel Ave., Newell, was fined $10 and costs by Squire John D. Herron Tuesday for failure to obey a traffic officer's signal. He was cited by sheriff's deputies.

Area Youth Electrocuted As He Uses Drill At Home

EAST ROCHESTER—Wayne Galen (Butch) Garner, 14, of Minerva RD 2 was electrocuted about 1:20 p.m. Wednesday while using an electric drill with sander attachment.

Dr. William Kolozsi of Salem, Columbiana County coroner, said the death was accidental and occurred at the Garner home on W. Egypt Rd. north of East Rochester.

Sheriff's Deputy Robert Wellington investigated after Dr. Samuel Weir, Minerva physician, notified Sheriff Russell J. Van Fossan of the accident.

The boy was sanding a pick-up truck parked outside the kitchen door. His parents, Audra W. and Erma Kerr Garner were in the house.

They told the deputy they heard their son shout, "Help me!" and ran outside to see him face down on the ground with the drill under him, still running. Mrs. Garner ran back into the house and pulled the plug.

The parents tried to revive the boy while waiting for the doctor. He pronounced Wayne dead.

An electrician, called by Wellington to examine the drill, said it was "hotter than a firecracker."

Wayne completed the sixth grade at East Rochester school this year and would have gone to Minerva Junior High School in September.

He was born Feb. 15, 1954, in Canton and resided in the Minerva-East Rochester area all his life. He was a member of the East Rochester United Methodist Church and the Junior High Sunday School class.

Besides his parents, he leaves a sister, Barbara, 11, at home.

Services will be held at 1:30 p.m. Friday at the Gotschall-Hutchison Funeral Home in Minerva, where friends may call from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. Thursday.

The Rev. Robert Randolph of the East Rochester church will officiate. Burial will be in Sandy Valley Cemetery at Waynesburg.

Reservists Denied Petition To Be Released From Call Up

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — A federal judge has denied a petition by 113 Ohio Army Reservists to be released from active duty.

In a 14-page opinion Tuesday, Judge Frank A. Kaufman of U.S. District Court ruled that a law authorizing the President to call reservists was applicable to them even though they enlisted before the law became effective on Oct. 15, 1966.

The Reservists, stationed at nearby Ft. Meade, Md., had challenged the constitutionality of the law and contended Congress could not delegate to the President the power to call them to active duty.

Their attorneys contended the men had a contract with the U.S. government under the law in effect when they joined the reserves, and that it was volated and abridged by the application of the 1966 statute.

HAVE YOU A QUESTION?

QUESTION:

"Would we offend the bereaved family if we were asked to be a pallbearer and we requested to be relieved of that honor for health reasons?"

ANSWER:

You certainly would not offend the family by not serving as a pallbearer for health reasons. You would only add to the family's grief if you impaired your health while assisting them.

Group Plans Youth Center For Heights

A Pleasant Heights Civic Association was formed at a meeting of residents of the area Tuesday night to maintain and supervise the Pleasant Heights School as a youth recreation center.

Miss Suzette Beaver was elected president of the new organization, which will be responsible for the program involving the school, which no longer will be used by the school district as a result of construction of the new LaCroft School.

Other officers are Earl Groubert, vice president; Mrs. Mary Chafin, secretary, and Harold Allison, treasurer.

Fourth Ward Councilman Edward Massey presided at the meeting at which discussion was held on the proposed use of the playground for youngsters out door recreation and the school building for meetings of Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Senior Citizens and other neighborhood groups.

The organization issued a statement declaring, "The Association believes that with the support of the people of Pleasand Heights, this will be a step forward in controlling juvenile delinquency."

The board of education has advertised for bids on all the schools which will not longer be used for education purposes.

However, the board has indicated some of the buildings may be turned over to the city for community use. Such an arrangement is tentatively considered for the Pleasant Heights School and two or three others.

Board Seeks Talks On City School Patrol

The Board of Education is seeking to invite members of Council to an informal meeting Monday night to discuss a recommendation from Mayor George E. Willshaw that the city discontinue paying salaries of adult school crossing guards in the new term and allow the school system to assume the cost.

Employing a dozen part-time guards, the system cost the city approximately $11,000 in the 1967-68 term. But the cost will be cut almost in half in the new term because fewer neighborhood guards will be required with the opening of a new consolidated elementary school and the closing of several old buildings.

Queried today about an estimate of costs for the 1968-69 term, the mayor said it should total $5,000 to $6,000. The guards are paid $1.50 hourly.

The mayor has prepared a letter recommending to Council that the city discontinue its crossing guard system and allow the schools to take over the administration of the jobs and the payment of the salaries. However, the recommendation has not been received officially by Council, which will not meet again in regular session until Aug. 19.

The question came up at the school board's meeting Monday night. The board had been advised of the mayor's recommendation.

The mayor said Counil has scheduled an informal meeting Saturday morning and he will relay to the members at that time the request for a meeting with the Board of Education.

GOP

roared their approval of a 13,000-word platform endorsed in advance by all three top contenders.

Senate GOP Leader Everett M. Dirksen, chairman of the convention Platform Committee, hailed the document as providing programs that will rescue "an outraged, heartbroken, shocked America" in a time of need.

Dirksen presented the best show of the convention, tossing copies of speeches out to the delegates and answering their applause by saying: "I accept the nomination."

To waves of cheers from the crowded hall, Dirksen declared it is time for voters to "depose this fumbling Democratic party ... its inept leadership ... those leaders, oh, so long on promise, oh, so short on performance."

The platform contains planks calling for a "de-Americanization" of the Vietnam war and the elimination of crime and violence.

As tonight's balloting neared, a group of favorite sons more or less controlled 195 votes.

Rockefeller and Reagan hope to stop Nixon through these votes. But there were rumblings of discontent in these areas.

Reagan apeared to have put down an incipient rebellion in his own 86-vote delegation. He sent Lt. Gov. Robert H. Finch, a Nixon campaign manager in 1960, packing off to California on state business.

Finch had raised the issue of whether Reagan's decision to become an active candidate had lifted the primary election commitment of state delegates to support the governor on the first ballot.

Former Sen. William F. Knowland, a member of the delegation, said there will be no defections from Reagan at the end of the formal balloting.

In the Michigan delegation supporting favorite son Gov. George Romney, Nixon's state manager, Emil Lockwood, said he may try to break away to the former vice president if he is close to the nomination at the end of the initial roll call. He said he thinks at least 13 would vote for Nixon then.

The 58-vote Ohio delegation stuck by plans for a formal offering of Gov. James A. Rhodes as a favorite son candidate Rhodes is believed to control 56 of the state's votes. But if Nixon came very close in the count, there was no assurance this group would remain intact.

The 40-vote New Jersey delegation, operating under the banner of Sen. Clifford P. Case as a favorite son, called a caucus amid increasing pressure of Nixon's supporters to break it apart.

Fall Hurts Irondale Woman, 18 More Treated At Hospital

An Irondale woman injured in a fall Tuesday was admitted to City Hospital where three employes of a construction firm and 15 others were treated after separate mishaps.

Mrs. Charles Metz of Irondale was in "fair" condition today with a right foot and ankle injury suffered in a fall.

Treated were Dale McIntire of Bald Knob, Ark., an employe of Cape Construction Co., a sprain of the back while lifting a log; Thomas H. Davis of 1317 St. Clair Ave., employe of Cape Construction Co., abrasions and contusions of the left leg when a board thrown from a tractor struck him.

Robert E. Jones of Searcy RD 2, Ark., an employe of Cape Construction Co., a contusion of the left knee which caught between weights on a side boom and a gas tank; Stanley W. Anderson of 311 Wood Alley, an employe of Globe Refractories, lacerations of the left ring and middle fingers on a saw.

Morris Briggs, son of Ronald Briggs of 820 Green Ln., a laceration of the forehead in a fall down steps; Garmen Swiger of 401 Azalea Ave., a laceration of the right arm on an auto door.

Linda Jones, daughter of Robert E. Jones of Calcutta, a fracture of the left leg in a fall from a swing; Terry Lynn Beckman, daughter of C. Allan Beckman of Route 30, Chester, a laceration of the chin in a fall from a bike.

Kenneth McCall, son of William McCall of 416 Bentley Ave., Newell, lacerations of the left knee in a fall through a plate glass door; Mrs. Robert Thorne of 1613 Alpha St., a right foot injury in a fall down stairs.

King Antiochus left inscriptions explaining that he chose his grave site as the "utmost ridge" of his kingdom and "in closest proximity to the heavenly throne of Zeus." This is believed to be Nemrud Dagh in southeast Turkey.

℞ PRESCRIPTIONS

PINWORMS CAN INFECT AN ENTIRE FAMILY

An itching around the anus may be caused by pinworms. They infest the intestinal tract and lay their eggs near or just outside the anus. The eggs do not hurt anything except when they are swallowed and hatch in the intestines.

Pinworms are so small you can hardly see them. The eggs are transmitted to the mouth by failure to properly wash the hands. They get on the fingers and under the nails. Explain to children the importance of cleanliness. Your physician can prescribe a medicine to eliminate pinworms.

YOU OR YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a delivery. We will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people rely on us for their health needs. We welcome requests for delivery service and charge accounts.

More Tests Due Johnson In Hospital

Johnson spent five hours Tuesday at Brooke Army Medical Center in San Antonio, then returned to his ranch home 35 minutes away by helicopter.

Press secretary George Christian said the chief executive would make a brief return trip to the hospital today or Thursday for final tests requiring an overnight fast.

Mrs. Johnson, also having a checkup at Brooke, remained there Tuesday night. Her examination was being completed today.

Christian said a public report on the President's health would be issued later by Johnson's personal physician, Vice Adm. George G. Burkley.

The chief executive's tests were described by Burkley as "in general keeping with the policy I have followed for the President's annual physical examination."

In 1582, Pope Gregory XIII corrected the difference in sun and calendar time by dropping 10 days from October. By this arrangement, the day that would have been Oct. 5, 1582, became Oct. 15. Hence, the "lost 10 days."

Band Parents Launch Sale

A rummage sale began today in New Cumberland. Mrs. Ralph Ward is chairman of the event sponsored by the Oak Glen Band Parents.

The group met Monday night in the school to make final plans for a "bucket brigade"—similar to a tag day — which will be held Aug. 17 in the Chester - Newell - New Cumberland areas. Proceeds will go into the general fund.

Four new Conn fiberglass tubas will be purchased, Robert Welch, president, said.

Mrs. James Allison was appointed to make plans for two refreshment stands at football games this fall.

A band camp will be held Aug. 12 at the school, James Buracchio, director, said. Students are to bring sack lunches. Transportation will be provided.

Mrs. Roscoe Wilson served refreshments.

Because of the Labor Day holiday, the next meeting will be Sept. 3 at 7:30 p. m. in the school, with Newell parents in charge of refreshments.

100 Participate In 'Pool Party'

The group taught more than 400 children in the two three-week sessions held during June and July at the park, Mrs. Eunice Petkovich, director, said.

Mrs. Petkovich was assisted by Miss Betsy Chetwynd and Mike March.

A "living recommendation" for the courses, Mrs. Petkovich said, is her own family. Of the seven at home, all but two either can swim or are learning, she said. The exceptions are now too young for classes. Mrs. Petkovich also served as director last year during the final session.

Refreshments were served by the Red Cross Food Service Committee — Mrs. Louella Myers, chairman, Mrs. Grace Smith, Mrs. Pearl Long, Mrs. Sylvia Hendricks, Mrs. Edna Bickel and Mrs. Gloria White.

Johnson spent five hours Tuesday at Brooke Army Medical Center in San Antonio, then returned to his ranch home 35 minutes away by helicopter.

Press secretary George Christian said the chief executive would make a brief return trip to the hospital today or Thursday for final tests requiring an overnight fast.

Mrs. Johnson, also having a checkup at Brooke, remained there Tuesday night. Her examination was being completed today.

Christian said a public report on the President's health would be issued later by Johnson's personal physician, Vice Adm. George G. Burkley.

The chief executive's tests were described by Burkley as "in general keeping with the policy I have followed for the President's annual physical examination."

In 1582, Pope Gregory XIII corrected the difference in sun and calendar time by dropping 10 days from October. By this arrangement, the day that would have been Oct. 5, 1582, became Oct. 15. Hence, the "lost 10 days."

Band Parents Launch Sale

A rummage sale began today in New Cumberland. Mrs. Ralph Ward is chairman of the event sponsored by the Oak Glen Band Parents.

The group met Monday night in the school to make final plans for a "bucket brigade"—similar to a tag day — which will be held Aug. 17 in the Chester - Newell - New Cumberland areas. Proceeds will go into the general fund.

Four new Conn fiberglass tubas will be purchased, Robert Welch, president, said.

Mrs. James Allison was appointed to make plans for two refreshment stands at football games this fall.

A band camp will be held Aug. 12 at the school, James Buracchio, director, said. Students are to bring sack lunches. Transportation will be provided.

Mrs. Roscoe Wilson served refreshments.

Because of the Labor Day holiday, the next meeting will be Sept. 3 at 7:30 p. m. in the school, with Newell parents in charge of refreshments.

100 Participate In 'Pool Party'

The group taught more than 400 children in the two three-week sessions held during June and July at the park, Mrs. Eunice Petkovich, director, said.

Mrs. Petkovich was assisted by Miss Betsy Chetwynd and Mike March.

A "living recommendation" for the courses, Mrs. Petkovich said, is her own family. Of the seven at home, all but two either can swim or are learning, she said. The exceptions are now too young for classes. Mrs. Petkovich also served as director last year during the final session.

Refreshments were served by the Red Cross Food Service Committee — Mrs. Louella Myers, chairman, Mrs. Grace Smith, Mrs. Pearl Long, Mrs. Sylvia Hendricks, Mrs. Edna Bickel and Mrs. Gloria White.

Officials Sift State's Ruling On City Funds

Auditor Lawrence J. Zollinger said today he is studying the future effect on the city's 1968 financial picture that will result from a ruling Tuesday by the State Board of Tax Appeals requiring that new revenue from a municipal income tax increase must actually be on hand before it can be appropriated.

The state agency rejected an appeal from the city requesting it to require the County Budget commission to allow immediate appropriation of the added revenue, rather than waiting until the cash is in the till. The Board of Tax Appeals upheld the county's position, declaring that the revenue cannot be allocated until it has been collected.

Approximately $90,000 is at stake — the additional money the city expects to receive as a result of boosting the income tax rate from eight-tenths of one per cent to a full one per cent.

In the first six months of 1968, the city had collected a total of $205,386 from the income tax, a gain of $18,686 from the $186,700 shown in the first six months of 1967.

But the $205,386 still is $131,515 short of the $336,901 the city collected from the tax in all of 1967. The tax produced $346,061 in 1966.

Before the tax question was decided, city officials estimated it would be November or December before the additional revenu would become availabl if the State Board of Tax Appeals ruled against the municipality.

The ruling apparently means that the additional revenue received late in 1968 will have to be appropriated piecemeal on various occasions as it bcomes available. Such a development would require an extraordinary amount of Council legislation and increase the bookkeeping job for the auditor's and treasurer's offices.

Ike Progress Reported As Satisfactory

WASHINGTON (AP) — Army doctors reported today that they are satisfied with former President Dwight D. Eisenhower's "current progress" from his Tuesday heart attack.

A morning medical bulletin from Walter Reed Army Hospital said:

"Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower has spent a comfortable night following his recent heart attack which occurred at 0615 hours (6:15 a.m. EDT) yesterday morning.

"His vital signs have remained stable. The doctors report that they are satisfied with his current progress."

Vital signs refer to the general's blood pressure, heart rate and beathing rate.

Doctors say it could take days to assess the heart damage caused by the latest attack.

Private physicians told The Associated Press diagnosis of Eisenhower's attack is complicated by the fact that he has had so may—six since 1955.

They said previously affected areas of the heart present a confusing picture on electronic equipment monitoring the heart beat, possibly sending signals overlapping the latest trouble.

But doctors at Walter Reed Hospital, where the general suffered the latest attack at 6:15 a.m., said: "Any individual who has sustained a recent infarction is considered to be seriously ill."

The doctors described the attack as probably a myrocardial infarction, or blocking of blood flow in the heart by a blood clot or fatty deposits in the bloodstream.

Doctors said electronic equipment was keeping tabs continually on Eisenhower's metabolism. He was on a low salt, liquid diet.

Visitors were restricted to the immediate family. Doctors said his wife, Mamie, visited him often. His son, John, and granddaughter flew here from The Republican National Convention at Miami Beach.

"The doctors thought the situation was serious enough that I should be here," said John. "When the boss is in trouble I come."

At the convention, former presidential candidate Thomas E. Dewey asked from the podium that delegates pray for Eisenhower's swift recovery.

The attack came Tuesday less than 12 hours after Eisenhower addressed the convention from the hospital via a nationwide television hookup.

"He looked great last night," said his son.

For Eisenhower to survive five heart attacks "and then address the Republicans in a voice that was resonant although halting a few times-and considering his age-is remarkable testimony to what medicine has been able to accomplish," said doctors at Walter Reed.

The convention was the first Eisenhower has missed in 16 years. He told the delegates he was counting on going, "but the doctors have said no and again no."

Eisenhower held a news conference July 18 to announce his support for his former vice president, Richard M. Nixon, for the GOP presidential nomination. It was the first time since he stepped down as president that Eisenhower had publicly endorsed a presidential hopeful.

Eisenhower had been in Walter Reed since May 14. He was transferred there after recovering sufficiently from an April 29 heart attack while vacationing in Palm Spings, Calif.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Tip On Butter From Chef

DEAR HELOISE: How in this world do you keep butter from burning in a skillet when pan-frying a steak?

I fry many things in butter, but it always burns before the cube melts.

MOLLY MAYBERY.

DEAR MOLLY: There really is a secret when you are going to pan-fry or saute anything in butter and here is what I learned from a famous who uses it in most of his cooking.

Heloise

Always put in a wee bit of vegetable oil in the bottom of your skillet first. As soon as it gets hot, then put your dabs of butter in. This way the butter floats on top of the oil, bubbles up (and mixes beautifully) and browns gently without ever burning. How about that?

I though old Henry was a precious friend when he told me that one, don't you?

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Hope this hint saves someone from a plumbing bill such as I had recently.

I bought a bathroom deodorizer that comes in the form of a block wrapped in cellophane on a wire hanger. You attach it inside the water tank with the block halfway under water.

A few days later the toilet refused to flush and I discovered the deodorant block had been drawn through the flush opening at the bottom of the tank.

Well, I learned my lesson. Now the block is wrapped in a piece of nylon net and the net is securely fastened to the wire hanger which is hooked over the side of the tank.

This way there is no danger of the block falling off and being flushed into the opening. As the block becomes smaller, it stays safely inside the nylon net.

BETTY LOU.

DEAR HELOISE: I am a business executive's wife who must go out quite a few times each week. Recently I broke my arm and it has to be in a cast for two months.

So I went to the store and bought large chiffon headscarves to use as slings. Then when I wear a black dress I use a black scarf, with a red dress I use a red one, etc.

They are much more attractive than heavy cloth slings.

LETTER OF LAUGHTER

ANN.

DEAR HELOISE: This is to let you know of a man's way for making floor scrubbing much easier.

I recently had a day off from work and decided to help my wife with her Friday cleaning by washing the kitchen and bedroom floors — on my hands and knees.

At first my knees became red and raw and I decided there must be a less punishing way of completing the task.

So I decided to make use of the knee pads I used when on a basketball team.

I just slipped them on and proceeded to speed up and make the job almost easy.

ROBERT C. BENZING.

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

Grady Has 'Growing Pains'

How does it feel to grow up from a boy to a man on a TV series? Well, it's all right, according to Don Grady, who was 15 when he started playing Robbie on "My Three Sons." The money is good, the work steady, but now that he's 24 he wonders if he shouldn't soon try new things.

Hal Humphrey

"I actually wanted out at the end of the seventh season, a year ago, but here I am beginning my ninth, and I just signed a contract for two more years," says Don.

-:-

PRODUCER Ed Hartmann convinced Don to stay the eighth year by having him get married in the plot (to Tina Cole), thus opening up Don's role more. He was disappointed at still having to live at the Douglas household with Dad (Fred MacMurray), feeling it wouldn't happen this way in real life, but then what does on TV?

This coming season, when Robbie and wife Katie have triplets in the eighth episode, they continue to live with Dad.

"I objected to this, too, pointing out there were facilities on campuses (Robbie's studying for his engineering degree), but Hartmann persuaded me it would suit the story better. At least, though, we've got an episode where my discontent shows and I quit school," Don says.

AT THE END of this episode, however, Robbie winds up back in school and still living at the Douglas home with brothers Chip and Ernie and Uncle Charley besides Dad. The triplets (boys) are in the same room with Robbie and Katie. Some of the furniture had to be moved into the hallway.

Don was interviewed twice for the role of Benjamin in Mike Nichols' movie, "The Graduate," but lost out to Dustin Hoffman.

"I felt capable of handling the part, but I'm glad Hoffman did it. I guess it wasn't my time. Maybe they wanted a fresh face," says Don, without bitterness.

IF HE HAD GOT this movie part, it would have meant giving up My Three Sons, a decision which Don says he'd have left up to his agent, who is aware of Don's ambition to become a more serious actor than is called for in the TV series.

Don's career started from an audition in San Francisco, where his father owned a salami factory (the family name is Agrati). Walt Disney was conducting a talent search for his Mouseketeers. When the scout saw Don sing, tap dance and play the ukelele, clarinet and accordion, he was hired. He was 12 then and put in a year as a Mouseketeer.

The family (including two sisters, now 13 and 20) moved to Hollywood, where Don's father works as a salami salesman now and his mother is a theatrical agent, a career she got into while helping Don find work after he graduated from the Mouseketeers.

AS THE FATHER of triplets this season, Don gets more to do in "My Three Sons," and signing a new contract got him a nice raise in pay. His only worry now, he says, is whether or not he can keep developing as an actor in a series which is not "a thinking man's show," as Don puts it.

Like the Beatles, Mia Farrow and other youthful show business stars, Don has followed the teachings of the Maharishi Mahesh. He goes in for meditation and is a member of SIMS (Student International Meditation Society).

"You've got to get inside of yourself. Once you're straightened out inside, that's it—the true meaning of God," says Don. "I know the Maharishi's publicity hasn't been so good recently, but I believe in him."

DON IS KEEPING UP with his music and currently is producing, writing and arranging his own record album for Canterbury Records. He also writes lyrics and music for all songs performed on My Three Sons.

It helps keep his mind off some of the unrealistic situations he's involved in on the series.

Mrs. Walter Reckner will be in charge of children's games from 3 to 5 p.m. A round and square dance will be held from 9 to midnight, with music furnished by Bill Burris and his Green Valley Boys.

Officers will be elected and prizes awarded in various categories.

Barry Changes Mind, Stays At GOP Convention

The former Arizona senator changed his mind about returning home and quietly set up shop Tuesday in an unpretentious hotel room. Delegates began pouring through the halls.

Goldwater's rousing welcome at Convention Hall Monday night briefly rekindled his glory of four years ago in San Francisco, and provided an opportunity Richard M. Nixon couldn't pass up.

Goldwater said only Nixon could have prevailed on him to remain at the convention. Now Goldwater says he will be in Miami Beach until Thursday, the morning after the presidential candidate is scheduled to be named.

Southern delegations were Goldwater's specialty Tuesday —Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas, Alabama, Florida and Georgia.

Generally he told them Nixon would be conservative enough to win in the South.

Nancy Reagan Busier Now Than In Her Actress Days

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Nancy Reagan is busier than she was in her movie actress days as she quietly helps her husband run for the Republican presidential nomination, but there's no speechmaking for this mother of two.

Instead she spends her days at the Republican National Convention giving interviews in which she liberally praises California's Gov. Ronald Reagan.

"The job is so tremendous, so awesome you do feel terribly sorry for the man who holds it," she said.

The Reagans came to the convention without their children, Skipper, 9, and Patti, 15. Skipper is at summer camp while Patti stays at the family home near Los Angeles, recovering from a tonsillectomy.

Mrs. Reagan, 44, pretty and well-tailored, even brought her own hairdresser to the convention. His name is Julius, and the cost of flying him here from Los Angeles was shared with six friends of Mrs. Reagan at the convention.

A main concern is losing Secret Service protection for the family if Reagan is not nominated.

"I want to keep them and I've threatened all sorts of things, such as letting the air out of their tires," she said.

The Reagans met in 1951 when she was a young actress for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer and he was an established star. They were married a year later.

Nancy is his second wife. Reagan's first wife was Jane Wyman, the actress, and they had two children, Michael and Maureen.

Reagan frequently sees them. Tuesday night he took time from campaigning to slip away for a visit with Maureen who is at the convention.

Today In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Justice Department says Cassius Clay told his draft board he was a professional boxer—not a minister—and Supreme Court review of his conviction on refusing military service should be turned down.

The former world heavyweight champion, who prefers to be called Muhammad Ali, has asked the court to overturn the conviction and a five-year prison sentence and $10,000 fine.

Clay seeks a ministerial exemption or conscientious objector status based on his beliefs as a member of the Black Muslim faith. He is free on $5,000 bond.

But the Justice Department, in a brief, said Clay consistently listed his occupation on Selective Service forms and questionnaires with terms such as "professional boxer" and "heavyweight champion of the world."

WASHINGTON (AP) — The late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy's staff has packed the last mementoes, decorations and personal files and officially closed the office.

It had been kept open two months after his assassination in Los Angeles, a traditional period on the death of a senator, for remaining staff members to wind up a variety of matters and pack effects.

Kennedy's office, on the third floor of the New Senate office building, was closed Tuesday.

New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller has not named a successor to Kennedy who was shot June 4 shortly after winning the California primary in his bid for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Mail May Move Again In Canada This Weekend

OTTAWA (AP) — The mail may move again in Canada by the weekend if the striking postmen accept an agreement reached after a marathon bargaining session that lasted nearly 31 hours. But considerable opposition among the strikers was reported.

A union spokesman in Vancouver said the proposed contract was disappointing and might be rejected by postal workers in British Columbia. Another spokesman predicted rejection in Toronto, Montreal, Ottawa and Vancouver, Canada's four biggest cities. But union leaders in Montreal and Halifax said they would recommend approval of the agreement, and ratification appeared certain in London, Ont.

The agreement was announced late Tuesday afternoon following the almost nonstop meeting that began Sunday afternoon between negotiators for the government and the 24,000 postal workers who struck 20 days ago.

Dewey Claims GOP Could Restore Peace

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Two-time presidential nominee Thomas E. Dewey says Republican leadership can restore peace to the streets and the world.

Dewey, addressing the GOP convention Tuesday night, looked back with lengthy praise on the eight years under former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, recuperating from a heart attack suffered earlier in the day.

Dewey said, "Our children are entitled to know that an orderly, decent, peaceful society is possible. They should know that we had one under the last Republican administration and we can have it again with the election this year."

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

Grady Has 'Growing Pains'

How does it feel to grow up from a boy to a man on a TV series? Well, it's all right, according to Don Grady, who was 15 when he started playing Robbie on "My Three Sons." The money is good, the work steady, but now that he's 24 he wonders if he shouldn't soon try new things.

Hal Humphrey

"I actually wanted out at the end of the seventh season, a year ago, but here I am beginning my ninth, and I just signed a contract for two more years," says Don.

-:-

PRODUCER Ed Hartmann convinced Don to stay the eighth year by having him get married in the plot (to Tina Cole), thus opening up Don's role more. He was disappointed at still having to live at the Douglas household with Dad (Fred MacMurray), feeling it wouldn't happen this way in real life, but then what does on TV?

This coming season, when Robbie and wife Katie have triplets in the eighth episode, they continue to live with Dad.

"I objected to this, too, pointing out there were facilities on campuses (Robbie's studying for his engineering degree), but Hartmann persuaded me it would suit the story better. At least, though, we've got an episode where my discontent shows and I quit school," Don says.

AT THE END of this episode, however, Robbie winds up back in school and still living at the Douglas home with brothers Chip and Ernie and Uncle Charley besides Dad. The triplets (boys) are in the same room with Robbie and Katie. Some of the furniture had to be moved into the hallway.

Don was interviewed twice for the role of Benjamin in Mike Nichols' movie, "The Graduate," but lost out to Dustin Hoffman.

"I felt capable of handling the part, but I'm glad Hoffman did it. I guess it wasn't my time. Maybe they wanted a fresh face," says Don, without bitterness.

IF HE HAD GOT this movie part, it would have meant giving up My Three Sons, a decision which Don says he'd have left up to his agent, who is aware of Don's ambition to become a more serious actor than is called for in the TV series.

Don's career started from an audition in San Francisco, where his father owned a salami factory (the family name is Agrati). Walt Disney was conducting a talent search for his Mouseketeers. When the scout saw Don sing, tap dance and play the ukelele, clarinet and accordion, he was hired. He was 12 then and put in a year as a Mouseketeer.

The family (including two sisters, now 13 and 20) moved to Hollywood, where Don's father works as a salami salesman now and his mother is a theatrical agent, a career she got into while helping Don find work after he graduated from the Mouseketeers.

AS THE FATHER of triplets this season, Don gets more to do in "My Three Sons," and signing a new contract got him a nice raise in pay. His only worry now, he says, is whether or not he can keep developing as an actor in a series which is not "a thinking man's show," as Don puts it.

Like the Beatles, Mia Farrow and other youthful show business stars, Don has followed the teachings of the Maharishi Mahesh. He goes in for meditation and is a member of SIMS (Student International Meditation Society).

"You've got to get inside of yourself. Once you're straightened out inside, that's it—the true meaning of God," says Don. "I know the Maharishi's publicity hasn't been so good recently, but I believe in him."

DON IS KEEPING UP with his music and currently is producing, writing and arranging his own record album for Canterbury Records. He also writes lyrics and music for all songs performed on My Three Sons.

It helps keep his mind off some of the unrealistic situations he's involved in on the series.

Tigers Beat Indians In 17, Lead In Suspended Contest

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

It was out and you're on and on and you're out.

Any fan knows that's no way to play baseball. The Baltimore Orioles know it, too.

Tony Oliva led off the sixth inning for Minnesota Tuesday night and struck out. But Oriole catcher Andy Etchebarren failed to handle the third strike and Oliva reached first. One out later, Bob Allison homered and Minnesota had a 5-0 lead.

The Orioles then fought back to trail by only 5-4 with one out in the ninth. Up stepped pinch-hitter Larry Haney, who lashed the ball to right field and ended up on second base. But he failed to touch first and was out.

Ron Perranoski retired the next hitter and the second-place Orioles were beaten 5-4 to fall 6½ games behind the American League-leading Detroit Tigers.

The Tigers edged Cleveland 2-1 in 17 innings on Dick Tracewski's run-scoring single and led 5-2 after eight innings of the nightcap of the twi-night doubleheader when it was suspended by a 1 a.m. EDT, curfew. It will be completed tonight.

In other American League action, Boston trounced the Chicago White Sox 8-2 and California beat Washington 10-3 before losing to the Senators 1-0. The New York Yankees and Oakland were not scheduled.

Cesar Tovar scored the first two Minnesota runs and drove in the third. Frank Robinson and Bob Johnson drove in Baltimore runs in the sixth. The Orioles got another pair in the eighth on Boog Powell's RBI double and an error.

Tracewski's game-winning single was only his second hit in 33 at bats. It scored Willie Horton, who singled and moved to second when Bill Freehan was hit by a pitch.

Cleveland scored in the third inning on Tommy Harper's single, a sacrifice and Jose Cardenal's single. Detroit tied it in the eighth when Don Wert homered off starter Luis Tiant.

The Tigers took a 5-2 lead in the suspended game by scoring four-runs in the sixth, two of them coming on Al Kaline's pinch double with the bases loaded.

Lou Klimchock's bases-loaded single brought in Cleveland's two runs. Detroit's other tally came on Norm Cash's 16th homer.

Boston wrapped up its victory over the White Sox with five runs in the fourth. Carl Yastrzemski hit his 14th homer leading off the fourth, then drove in another run in the inning when he walked with the bases loaded. He also batted in a run with a sacrifice fly in the first.

Jim Lonborg, the Red Sox ace who was injured in an off-season skiing accident, boosted his record to 3-3 as the Red Sox won for the sixth time in the last seven games. Lonborg was lifted for a pinch hitter in the eighth, with Boston leading by five runs.

Joe Coleman scattered four singles, struck out eight and got the only run he needed when Cap Peterson kcored on a wild pitch in the fourth inning in Washington's first game victory.

Peterson singled, stole second, moved to third on Hank Allen's single and came in on Jim McGlothlin's wild pitch.

California took advantage of six Washington errors to score six unearned runs in the opening game. Chuck Hinton homered for the winning Angels and he, Don Mincher and Bobby Knoop each collected three hits.

East Liverpool High basketball coach Clint McConnell returned Saturday from an all-sports clinic at the University of Kentucky in Lexington.

McConnell, of course, was there for the basketball part of the three-day affair, and the main speakers for the cage coaches were Adolph Rupp of Kentucky and Vic Bubas of Duke, two of the most successful coaches in the country. While McConnell says that a good coach does not always make a good clinician, he terms Rupp and Bubas "excellent."

Rupp stressed that a coach should have confidence in his system and enthusiasm, so that the players will share his enthusiasm and confidence. Rupp also talked at length on defenses.

"Nothing beats a good, strong man-to-man, or at least man-to-man principles in a zone." McConnell notes that Kentucky used to play exclusively man-to-man, but now uses "matching" defenses, a combination of the zone and man-to-man.

McConnell said that he taped Rupp's lecture, and got some valuable ideas he hopes to incorporate into East Liverpool's defense this coming season.

Rupp also advocates the fast break, and Bubas was even more emphatic in his praise of it.

McConnell was accompanied to the clinic by Coach Chuck Watt of Steubenville. Fifty per cent of the coaches attending were from outside the state of Kentucky.

E. Liverpool Colts Win 9-4 On 5-Run Rally In Seventh

Newburgh Falls

The East Liverpool Colt League all-stars got off on the right foot in the divisional tourney at Marion last night, scoring five runs in the ninth inning to down Newburgh, N. Y. 9-4

Randy McVay was the winning pitcher, hurling three hitless innings in relief of Hap Palmer, who yielded an unearned run in three innings, and Jim Moore, who was rocked for three runs in the fourth.

Cecil Barker, with a pair of doubles, including one for two runs in the seventh inning rally, was the hitting star.

After an error by Vic Reed gave Newburgh a run in the first, East Liverpool scored three times in the second. Barker doubled and John Haney and McVay walked to load the bases. Crew came in to pitch for Newburgh and walked Reed, forcing in Barker, and committed a balk, scoring Haney. McVay scored when Mike Smith grounded out.

Barker was safe on a force-out, stole second and scored on an error in the third.

In the seventh Smith walked, Terry Boyd sacrificed and was safe when the pitcher fumbled the ball, and Scott Dubberly walked to load the bases. Smith scored on a grounder by Byers and Barker Doubled in two more runs. McVay was hit by a pitch and Reed's bunt brought in the final tally.

Hagerstown, Md., the tourney favorite, whipped Marion 15-3 in the nightcap last night, with the game stopped after five innings East Liverpool faces Hagerstown at 8:30 tonight after Marion and Newburgh play at 6:30.

Falcons' Defense Sound, Running Attack Problem

By RON SPEER
Associated Press Sports Writer

JOHNSON CITY, Tenn. (AP) — Coach Norb Hecker is convinced he finally has the Atlanta Falcons on the right track, altough a lack of offensive punch is still apparent.

"I think we're finally jelling as a team, particularly on defense," said Hecker, hoping to rebound from a disappointing season in 1967 when the Falcons managed only a single victory.

"The team attitude is the best we've had," Hecker said. 'Our defense is really working as a unit, and our passing should be better because our receivers have made a lot of improvement."

A pair of big rookies, 250-pound Carlton Dabney of Morgan State and 255-pound Claude Humphrey of Tennessee State, are ticketed for starting jobs in the defensive line, a trouble spot for the Falcons since they made their National Football League debut in 1966.

"The line is the key to our improvement on defense, and it should be a lot stronger this year with Dabney and Humphrey in there," Hecker said.

The Falcons have a proven corps of linebackers headed by big Tommy Nobis, and a tested defensive secondary in Ken Reaves, Nick Rassas, Bob Riggle and Lee Calland.

Offensively, however, the Falcons may have trouble because of a lack of running backs.

Junior Coffey, who gained more than 700 yards each of the past two season, was the only running standout and he has been sidelined for a couple of months with a knee injury.

Perry Lee Dunn, Jim Mankins and Rookies Harmon Wages of Florida and Bill Harris of Colorado have not been overly impressive in practice, but the Falcons plan to go with them unless they can work out a trade for a veteran runner.

"We're not going to panic over it," Hecker said. "But we may have to do a lot of passing."

"We've got a lot of good receivers this year, and our passing game should be much better," Hecker said.

Tight end Ray Ogden, split end Jerry Simmons and flanker Gene Snipes have been standouts in summer drills, and rookies John Wright of Illinois, Rick Eber of Tulsa, Ray Jeffords of Georgia and Ed Larios of San Francisco State have drawn praise from Hecker.

The offensive line should be stronger, with Dan Grimm back at guard after missing the 1967 season with a leg injury.

"And if we can get the ball to the 50 we should be able to get a field goal," Hecker said, pointing out that rookie Bob Etter of Georgia has been deadly in practice.

Etter, who weighs only 152 pounds, has come up with a special kicking shoe and has been booting field goals in practice almost without a miss.

Etter hit on kicks of 50, 39 and 38 in the Falcons' final intrasquad scrimmage.

"We may have the best kicking game in the league," Hecker said, noting that Billy Lothridge won the NFL punting title last year with an average of 43.7 yards on 87 kicks.

Hecker appears more confident this summer than he did in previous training camps, when the Falcons ere trying to build a team.

"We've gotten a good organization set up now, and a good coaching staff," Hecker said. "Everybody knows what he's doing and I'm able to look at the overall picture better."

But Hecker can't carry the ball, and the lack of dependable runners probably means the Falcons will be scrambling to improve on their 1967 record.

Pirates End Slide, Cubs Regain 2nd

By DICK COUCH
By The Associated Press

The Atlanta Braves fumbled the ball and Don Drysdale couldn't pick it up.

The Braves committed four errors in the first inning Tuesday night on the way to a 4-3 loss to Chicago that gave the Cubs undisputed possession of second place in the National League.

Drysdale bobbled Maury Wills' bases-loaded roller in the ninth inning and the Pittsburgh Pirates added two more runs for a 4-1 victory over the skidding Los Angeles Dodgers' ace.

Cincinnati's Jim Maloney stopped the first-place St. Louis Cardinals 5-0 with a five-hitter; San Francisco trimmed Philadelphia 4-1 behind the hitting of rookie Bobby Bonds and the New York Mets topped Houston 4-1 on rookie Kevin Collins' three-run ninth-inning homer.

The Cubs capitalized on two errors by Felipe Alou—on the same play—and one each by Marty Martinez and Felix Millan for a 3-0 first-inning lead at Atlanta.

Fifth-inning doubles by Al Spungler and Randy Hundley sent another Chicago run home and the Cubs weathered a late comeback by the Braves for the seventh victory in eight games.

Hank Aaron and Alou hit bases-empty homers for Atlanta before Phil Regan, the Cubs' relief ace, nailed the victory for starter Joe Niekro.

The Pirates broke a 1-1 tie at Los Angeles on Drysdale's second error in the ninth and Willie Stargell provided insurance with a two-run single.

Bill Mazeroski and Jerry May singled with one out and moved up one base apiece on Drysdale's wild pickoff attempt. First baseman Ron Fairly then fielded pinch hitter Manny Jimenez' grounder but failed to make a play after bluffing a throw home.

That filled the bases and set the stage for the decisive misplay by Drysdale, who has lost his last four decisions for a 12-10 season mark.

The Reds nursed a 1-0 lead until the eighth inning at St. Louis, when Leo Cardenas homered and an error by Julian Javier opened the gates for three more runs.

Maloney, 10-7, allowed five singles—three by Dal Maxvill—in boosting his career advantage over the Cardinals to 11-5.

Bonds tripled in the first inning and scored on a passed ball, then cracked a tie-breaking single in the eighth as the Giants struck for three runs.

Gaylord Perry stopped the Phillies on three hits and leveled his record at 10-10. Loser Larry Jackson yielded just one hit—Bonds' triple—until the eighth, when Jim Davenport, Bonds, Dave Marshall and Willie McCovey reached him for singles.

Collins grounded into a force play with the bases loaded in the seventh, driving in New York's first run, and drilled his first major league homer following singles by Cleon Jones and Ed Kranepool in the ninth.

Nicklaus Favored In American Golf

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Strongboy Jack Nicklaus looms as a solid favorite to snare his second straight tournament triumph when action starts Thursday in the $125,000 American Golf Classic.

The Columbus belter ended a long drought last Sunday with an easy victory in the Western Open. It was his first tour success since last October.

Big Jack, who always appears at his best when the challenge is great, will be testing the rugged, 7,180-yard' par-70 Firestone Country Club layout, one of the finest courses in the country.

He'll also have to whip a strong field that includes slump-ridden but dangerous Arnold Palmer, the defending champion and the only two-time winner of the American Golf Classic.

There's certainly enough incentive for the 120 pros to shoot at since purse money has been boosted $25,000, which coincidently is the first place prize.

Montreal Reported Losing NL Franchise

CHICAGO (AP) — WGN broadcasting, which carries Chicago Cub baseball games on radio and television, said Tuesday night it had learned Montreal will lose its National League baseball franchise because of financial difficulties.

WGN, broadcasting over its radio and television outlets, said "a high baseball official" reported the franchise would be shifted to either Milwaukee or Buffalo.

Newman said both Montreal and San Diego—the league's other expansion city—received an extension from Aug. 1 to Aug. 15 to make the first payment to the league.

Newman said the payment is to be $1,120,000 and the extension was granted by National League President Warren Giles. Giles was not available for comment on the WGN report.

WGN said Montreal will lose the franchise because the city is unable to raise $5 million to finance a dome for its stadium.

Montreal and San Diego were awarded franchises in an expansion move last spring and the Montreal choice came as a big surprise to baseball.

At the time, however, Giles maintained that the financial framework for eventually increasing the capacity and doming the stadium was all set.

Meanwhile, there have been recurring reports that the Montreal citizenry has not gone overboard for a major league franchise.

Suspension Challenged

CHARLESTON — Jockey Victor Ray Cooper is asking Kanawha Circuit Court to void a state Racing Commission order upholding a suspension against him at Waterford Park.

Stewards at the Charles Town race track suspended Cooper between June 3 and July 8 for "conduct detrimental to the best interests of racing."

The jockey, in his court petition, complains about the evidence presented against him and claims that the commission erred in not voiding the stewards decision.

Pitcher Osteen Asks Hitter Help

CINCINNATI (AP) — Suggestions are beginning to flow into the office of National League President Warren Giles who's been wondering how to restore the batter - pitcher balance to baseball.

"You have been hearing the same remarks I have about the dominance of pitchers," Giles said in a letter to coaches, managers and players within the league. "I would appreciate your suggestions."

Among viewpoints he's received on what he terms "an obvious imbalance" between the batters and the hurlers:

"I'd like to see them shorten the fence—I'm for anything that would help us score more runs," said Dodger pitcher Claude Osteen.

Move the mound back from its present 60.5 feet, Braves General Manager Paul Richards has proposed.

Cal McLish, former pitcher and now a scout with Philadelphia, blames much of the problem on the umpires, as he claims they give moundsmen the advantage.

In 1962, the league's average team batting average was .261. This year through Aug. 2, it was .241.

Emile Griffith Decisions Gypsy Joe Harris Easily

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — "They wrote that all Gypsy had to do was show up and bugaloo and he's win. I guess the Old Man showed 'em something."

Emile Griffith was chortling in his dressing room at the Spectrum after winning a lopsided decision over previously unbeaten Gypsy Joe Harris. He referred to prefight stories he had read which wrote him off as an old man about to be devoured by the 22-year-old unorthodox Harris of Philadelphia.

When it was over, however, Griffith, twice the middleweight champion, had ended the younger man's 24-fight winning streak. He did it with the authority of an experienced fighter giving a pupil a boxing lesson.

The decision was unanimous. Judges Nat Lopinson and Dave Beloff scored it 56-53 and 58-51, respectively, while referee Pete Tomasco had it 58-53 for the 29-year-old New Yorker from the Virgin Islands. The Associated Press gave Griffith all 12 rounds and a 60-48 triumph.

Griffith, who lost his middleweight title last March to Nino Benvenuti of Italy, may have set himself up for a return bout with the Italian.

Griffith's co-manager, Gil Clancy said, "Benvenuti must fight Emile if he wants to fight for money, or else he'll fight for peanuts."

Clancy said Griffith has an offer to fight Jimmy Lester in San Francisco.

South Side Eliminated At Robinson

South Side A. C. was eliminated by North Whitehall 3-0 in the Robinson Twp. Little League tourney Monday night.

M. Falvo of the winners completely handcuffed South Side, allowing only one baserunner, Mark Fabbro, who had a pinch-hit single in the fifth. Falvo fanned 17, all but one of the outs. Dan Williams was the losing pitcher.

Falcons' Defense Sound, Running Attack Problem

By RON SPEER
Associated Press Sports Writer

JOHNSON CITY, Tenn. (AP) — Coach Norb Hecker is convinced he finally has the Atlanta Falcons on the right track, altough a lack of offensive punch is still apparent.

"I think we're finally jelling as a team, particularly on defense," said Hecker, hoping to rebound from a disappointing season in 1967 when the Falcons managed only a single victory.

"The team attitude is the best we've had," Hecker said. 'Our defense is really working as a unit, and our passing should be better because our receivers have made a lot of improvement."

A pair of big rookies, 250-pound Carlton Dabney of Morgan State and 255-pound Claude Humphrey of Tennessee State, are ticketed for starting jobs in the defensive line, a trouble spot for the Falcons since they made their National Football League debut in 1966.

"The line is the key to our improvement on defense, and it should be a lot stronger this year with Dabney and Humphrey in there," Hecker said.

The Falcons have a proven corps of linebackers headed by big Tommy Nobis, and a tested defensive secondary in Ken Reaves, Nick Rassas, Bob Riggle and Lee Calland.

Offensively, however, the Falcons may have trouble because of a lack of running backs.

Junior Coffey, who gained more than 700 yards each of the past two season, was the only running standout and he has been sidelined for a couple of months with a knee injury.

Perry Lee Dunn, Jim Mankins and Rookies Harmon Wages of Florida and Bill Harris of Colorado have not been overly impressive in practice, but the Falcons plan to go with them unless they can work out a trade for a veteran runner.

"We're not going to panic over it," Hecker said. "But we may have to do a lot of passing."

"We've got a lot of good receivers this year, and our passing game should be much better," Hecker said.

Tight end Ray Ogden, split end Jerry Simmons and flanker Gene Snipes have been standouts in summer drills, and rookies John Wright of Illinois, Rick Eber of Tulsa, Ray Jeffords of Georgia and Ed Larios of San Francisco State have drawn praise from Hecker.

The offensive line should be stronger, with Dan Grimm back at guard after missing the 1967 season with a leg injury.

"And if we can get the ball to the 50 we should be able to get a field goal," Hecker said, pointing out that rookie Bob Etter of Georgia has been deadly in practice.

Etter, who weighs only 152 pounds, has come up with a special kicking shoe and has been booting field goals in practice almost without a miss.

Etter hit on kicks of 50, 39 and 38 in the Falcons' final intrasquad scrimmage.

"We may have the best kicking game in the league," Hecker said, noting that Billy Lothridge won the NFL punting title last year with an average of 43.7 yards on 87 kicks.

Hecker appears more confident this summer than he did in previous training camps, when the Falcons ere trying to build a team.

"We've gotten a good organization set up now, and a good coaching staff," Hecker said. "Everybody knows what he's doing and I'm able to look at the overall picture better."

But Hecker can't carry the ball, and the lack of dependable runners probably means the Falcons will be scrambling to improve on their 1967 record.

Packers Get Kicker, Soccer Player Souza

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

For the Green Bay Packers, the team that has everything, Fernado Souza might be the perfect gift.

Souza is a present from the Fall River, Mass., Astros of the American Soccer League, and he might be the latest soccer-style kicker to make the grade in pro football after an on-the-mark performance Tuesday.

The 28-year-old center-forward kicked six field goals in 10 tries against the Packers' defense. He hit five of six from 37 yards and one of four from 42.

The defending National Football League and Super Bowl champions with an offense and defense that puts them again in the favorite's role this season are missing only a kicker since Don Chandler retired. And the Packers know what an important omission that can be.

With Paul Hornung doing the kicking, the Packers won their division title in 1960 and 1961 and Jerry Kramer helped them to the 1962 title with his kicking. But with Hornung suspended in 1963 and Kramer unable to repeat his fine year, the Packers lost out in 1964 and again in 1965 when Hornung returned and was unable to regain his form.

Then came Chandler, a big factor in Green Bay's sweep of the last three NFL titles.

Souza is Green Bay's first try with a soccer kicker, but the success of Pete and Charley Gogolak is nothing to be laughed at. And Souza's kicking certainly had the Packers thinking seriously.

The Philadelphia Eagles, however probably had a few chuckles Tuesday as possibly the first NFL team to be fingerprinted, photographed, questioned and vaccinated all in one day.

The occasion for the squad of 56, plus coaches, managers and reporters, was preparation for the Eagles trip to Mexico City for an exhibition against the Detroit Lions.

It was not known if the Lions already had undergone their day, but they had little to laugh about after learning that defensive end John Baker suffered a broken right forearm in a 13-9 loss Monday night to the Buffalo Bills of the American League.

Baker, a 10-year NFL veteran obtained this year from Pittsburgh, is expected to be out four to six weeks.

Quarterbacks took up most of the other pro football news as the Oakland Raiders of the AFL dropped veteran signal caller Charlie Green; Baltimore of the NFL sent Jeff Beaver, a 15th draft choice from North Carolina, to the taxi squad, and Los Angeles of the NFL asked waivers on former college stars Jimmy Raye of Michigan State and Billy Guy Anderson of Tulsa. Anderson was in his second season; Raye was trying out as a defensive back.

Tom Beier Called Up To Active Duty

BOCA RATON, Fla. (AP)—Tom Beier, first string safety for the Miami Dolphins, left training camp Tuesday to report for active duty with the Army Reserve. He will miss the 1968 season.

The University of Miaml graduate, drafted 10th by the Dolphins last year, had reported to camp in top physical condition and won the strong safety job before receiving his orders.

"I guess it's the toughest thing that ever happened to me," said the 23-year-old native of Fremont, Ohio. "It's not that I'm unpatriotic or anything like that. I want to do my duty. But why couldn't I have gone on active duty in January rather than now?" "This really puts the stopper to my football career. You lose a season and you might never come back," Beier said.

Rookie Dick Anderson, third round draft choice from Colorado, or Bobby Petrella, a third-year pro from Tennessee, is expected to replace Beier.

Bill Talbot Has 1-Hitter In Softball

LISBON — East Liverpool beat Lisbon Merchants 10-2 Tuesday night in County Softball League play at Pine Tree Inn Field.

Two make-up games are scheduled this week — Wellsville Merchants vs. Lisbon Merchants at 7:15 p.m. today and Albco vs. Lisbon Merchants at 7:15 Thursday.

Globetrotters Purchase Oakland Icers

OAKLAND (AP) — The Oakland Seals of the National Hockey League, in trouble on the ice and at the gate last season, have undergone changes of ownership and players that they hope will improve their performance in both areas.

Potter Palmer of Chicago and John O'Neil Jr. of Miami, Fla., two of the team's owners, have joined with George Gillett of Chicago to buy control, they announced Tuesday.

The three partners are already sole owners of the Harlem Globetrotters basketball team and also have an interest in the Atlanta Braves in baseball, the Miami Dolphins of the American Football League and the Atlanta Chiefs of the North American Soccer League.

Previously the Seals had nearly 50 stockholders from various cities and this led to management problems so great that the club nearly moved to Vancouver, Canada.

Only the opposition of NHL owners prevented this.

Palmer, O'Neil and Gillett say they are committed to staying in Oakland.

Earlier, the Seals appointed a new head coach, Fred Glover, and made two multi-player deals, one with the Montreal Canadiens, obtaining Norm Ferguson and Stan Fuller from the Stanley Cup winners and another with Detroit.

Packers Get Kicker, Soccer Player Souza

Associated Press Sports Writer

For the Green Bay Packers, the team that has everything, Fernado Souza might be the perfect gift.

Souza is a present from the Fall River, Mass., Astros of the American Soccer League, and he might be the latest soccer-style kicker to make the grade in pro football after an on-the-mark performance Tuesday.

The 28-year-old center-forward kicked six field goals in 10 tries against the Packers' defense. He hit five of six from 37 yards and one of four from 42.

The defending National Football League and Super Bowl champions with an offense and defense that puts them again in the favorite's role this season are missing only a kicker since Don Chandler retired. And the Packers know what an important omission that can be.

With Paul Hornung doing the kicking, the Packers won their division title in 1960 and 1961 and Jerry Kramer helped them to the 1962 title with his kicking. But with Hornung suspended in 1963 and Kramer unable to repeat his fine year, the Packers lost out in 1964 and again in 1965 when Hornung returned and was unable to regain his form.

Then came Chandler, a big factor in Green Bay's sweep of the last three NFL titles.

Souza is Green Bay's first try with a soccer kicker, but the success of Pete and Charley Gogolak is nothing to be laughed at. And Souza's kicking certainly had the Packers thinking seriously.

The Philadelphia Eagles, however probably had a few chuckles Tuesday as possibly the first NFL team to be fingerprinted, photographed, questioned and vaccinated all in one day.

The occasion for the squad of 56, plus coaches, managers and reporters, was preparation for the Eagles trip to Mexico City for an exhibition against the Detroit Lions.

It was not known if the Lions already had undergone their day, but they had little to laugh about after learning that defensive end John Baker suffered a broken right forearm in a 13-9 loss Monday night to the Buffalo Bills of the American League.

Baker, a 10-year NFL veteran obtained this year from Pittsburgh, is expected to be out four to six weeks.

Quarterbacks took up most of the other pro football news as the Oakland Raiders of the AFL dropped veteran signal caller Charlie Green; Baltimore of the NFL sent Jeff Beaver, a 15th draft choice from North Carolina, to the taxi squad, and Los Angeles of the NFL asked waivers on former college stars Jimmy Raye of Michigan State and Billy Guy Anderson of Tulsa. Anderson was in his second season; Raye was trying out as a defensive back.

Tom Beier Called Up To Active Duty

BOCA RATON, Fla. (AP)—Tom Beier, first string safety for the Miami Dolphins, left training camp Tuesday to report for active duty with the Army Reserve. He will miss the 1968 season.

The University of Miami graduate, drafted 10th by the Dolphins last year, had reported to camp in top physical condition and won the strong safety job before receiving his orders.

"I guess it's the toughest thing that ever happened to me," said the 23-year-old native of Fremont, Ohio. "It's not that I'm unpatriotic or anything like that. I want to do my duty. But why couldn't I have gone on active duty in January rather than now?" "This really puts the stopper to my football career. You lose a season and you might never come back," Beier said.

Rookie Dick Anderson, third round draft choice from Colorado, or Bobby Petrella, a third-year pro from Tennessee, is expected to replace Beier.

Bill Talbot Has 1-Hitter In Softball

LISBON — East Liverpool beat Lisbon Merchants 10-2 Tuesday night in County Softball League play at Pine Tree Inn Field.

Two make-up games are scheduled this week — Wellsville Merchants vs. Lisbon Merchants at 7:15 p.m. today and Albco vs. Lisbon Merchants at 7:15 Thursday.

Globetrotters Purchase Oakland Icers

OAKLAND (AP) — The Oakland Seals of the National Hockey League, in trouble on the ice and at the gate last season, have undergone changes of ownership and players that they hope will improve their performance in both areas.

Potter Palmer of Chicago and John O'Neil Jr. of Miami, Fla., two of the team's owners, have joined with George Gillett of Chicago to buy control, they announced Tuesday.

The three partners are already sole owners of the Harlem Globetrotters basketball team and also have an interest in the Atlanta Braves in baseball, the Miami Dolphins of the American Football League and the Atlanta Chiefs of the North American Soccer League.

Previously the Seals had nearly 50 stockholders from various cities and this led to management problems so great that the club nearly moved to Vancouver, Canada.

Only the opposition of NHL owners prevented this.

Palmer, O'Neil and Gillett say they are committed to staying in Oakland.

Earlier, the Seals appointed a new head coach, Fred Glover, and made two multi-player deals, one with the Montreal Canadiens, obtaining Norm Ferguson and Stan Fuller from the Stanley Cup winners and another with Detroit.

Father-Son Golf Set At Beaver Creek

There will be a father and son golf tourney Saturday at 10:30 at the Beaver Creek Par 3 golf course on Route 7.

Sons will get handicaps according to their age. Otherwise there will be no handicaps and the trophy goes to the lowest combined scores.

Claimed Suddenly

SCARBOROUGH, Maine (AP) — Eric O. "Ollie" Berg, named to the Basketball Hall of Fame in recognition of 40 years' devotion to the sport as an official and high school coach, is dead at the age of 67. He died suddenly Monday while playing golf.

Tunisian Students Visit In Area

Ten college students from the University of Tunis in Tunisia, Africa, who toured the Harker China Co. in Chester Tuesday, were guests of the Rotary Club here.

They came to the United States under an international program whereby the Tunisian government and the U.S. State Department pay part of the expenses and the students the remainder. They are living in student quarters at Mt. Union for one week, during which time they are being taken on tours to various points of interest.

After leaving Mt. Union, they will live for four weeks with various families in a suburb south of Chicago. After leaving Chicago, they will join another group of 10 students now in Michigan, and the entire group then will visit Washington, D. C.

THE STUDENTS range in age from 23 to 25. All speak English and expect to teach when they return home. The spokesman for the group, Tijani Haddad, briefly outlined the history of Tunisia, its government and the Mohammedan religion.

The country contains some 49,000 square miles and has a population of 5 million. More than half the population is made up of persons 25 years of age or under.

Four languages are spoken. Arabic is most fluently used, then French, English and Italian in that order.

All of the students belong to an English club at the university.

Merrill Hall, who was originally scheduled to speak Tuesday, will appear later.

Industry Area Events

Mrs Pat Nuzzo 643-4508

Plans were completed for the parish picnic when the Men's Club of St. Christine Catholic Church in Ohio View, Industry, met Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. in the lower church hall.

The picnic will be Aug. 18 at shelter 1 in Brady's Run Park.

The St. Christine Guild and Confraternity of Christian Mothers telephone committee will contact members of the parish for the number planning to attend so that adequate treats for the children will be available.

Anyone not contacted is to call Mrs. Lloyd Hendry, guild president.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. — How can I improvise an effective metal polish?

A. — Ordinary blackboard chalk makes a fine metal polish. Just rub a little soft-grade chalk onto a dry or damp cloth, and apply to the metal surface. There is just enough abrasiveness in the chalk to remove dirt and grease without scratching, and leaves a nice, glossy finish.

A.—Mix the omelet in the usual way, then instead of cooking it in a pan, cook in a double boiler. It will come out fluffy and moist. And the omelet won't collapse (whether you cook it this way or in a frying pan) if you add a pinch of cornstarch and a pinch of powdered sugar to the yolk of each egg before it is beaten.

Q.—How can I make a mushroom chowder?

A.—Combine condensed cream of mushroom soup with one can of light cream, one cup of sauteed sliced mushrooms, a few tablespoons of lightly sauteed onion, and sieved hard boiled eggs. Heat and serve. It's good!

Improve Negro Districts, Welfare Secretary Urges

WASHINGTON (AP) — Welfare secretary Wilbur J. Cohen says integration may be a generation away in many northern city school systems and the goal in the meantime should be to improve conditions in black neighborhoods.

"I think we have to be realistic," the Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare said. "In a large number of big-city areas we have a lot of neighborhoods that are going to be completely black."

But, he said, "if we can have good schools and good police protection (in such areas), maybe that's better than having fear and riots. And maybe another generation will have to deal with integration."

Cohen also said in an interview that busing of students between slum and other neighborhoods is not the answer to desegregating school systems.

"I have never thought that busing was a very large-scale answer to this problem and I don't think most people do," he said. "I don't see it as more than a temporary expedient. Over-all, nationally, it is not the answer."

Asked whether his assessment means that greater emphasis should be placed on making Negro schools better, he said: "Yes, I think so."

Cohen called for expansion of the $1-billion-a-year program of federal education aid to poor youngsters.

The secretary also said that his department plans to "step up very substantially and materially" its program to assure equal educational opportunities for Negro children in Northern schools.

The Northern program, begun early this year, is an extension of HEW's civil rights compliance efforts in Southern school systems.

Two To Face Grand Jury In Robbery Case

Two area residents were bound over to the next term of the Hancock County Grand Jury after being arraigned on a robbery charge Tuesday night before Squire Eugene Allison of Chester.

James Floyd Cramer, 19, of 709½ Avondale St., East Liverpool, and Roger Clyde Post, 21, of Irish Ridge Rd. were apprehended by Chester police early Tuesday morning after they had entered the Ross Television Electronics building on Finley Rd. just off the Chester-Newell Rd.

Patrolman Bob Wilson, who arrested the pair, said they had tripped an alarm in the workshop part of the building and a neighbor, Lawrence Smoot of Finley Rd., held the two at bay with a gun until police arrived.

The two had ransacked the office and $33.24 was found in the bushes in back of the building. Three television sets had been lined up to be carried out, Wilson said. Entrance was gained by breaking a window in the rear of the building.

Both Cramer and Post have previous records in East Liverpool. Cramer was charged on Feb. 28 with breaking and entering a Pleasant Heights home and has a juvenile record, officers said. Post was charged with auto theft Dec. 16, 1966, and was turned over to the FBI. He also was a deserter from the Navy.

The two are in Brooke County jail under $5,000 bond.

Eyes of Chinese are not actually slanted. The slant - eyed effect is caused by a lid fold in the inner corner which makes the eyes look slanted or almond - shaped.

Open House Set For Salineville Center Thursday

SALINEVILLE — The Rev. William Ring, president of the Columbiana County Community Action Agency, will be among speakers for an open house to be held Thursday night at the Community Center here.

The ceremonies will be held at 7 p.m. at the hall in the fire station on Main St.

Lionel Smith, executive director of the CAA, will also speak. The Rev. Ralph Chambers will give the invocation.

The public is invited to the event, and officials of area communities have been requested to attend.

At a meeting of the board of directors, it was agreed to cancel classes at the center for the remainder of the week. However, a junior high school dance will be held Friday night.

Citations Given Glenmoor Legion

A citation for a nine year consecutive membership gain and an award for annual child welfare projects were received by the Glenmoor American Legion Post at the department convention in Columbus recently, it was reported at a meeting Tuesday.

Delegates to the convention were Commander Herman Langer, Roland Weber, William Stowers, Fred Morgan, James Wright and Con Jones.

Keith Steiner, Beaver Local High School student who represented the post at Buckeye Boys' State, reported on the activities at the convention. Keith was elected by the boys as Justice of the Supreme Court.

Post 736 will hold its annual family picnic Sunday at Lake Samary. Some 18 attended the meeting.

Victory Club Meets

Two tables of 500 were in play when the Victory Club met Monday night with Mrs. Kathryn Gunn of W. Lincoln Way.

Prizes went to Mrs. Virginia Williams and Mrs. Mary Chillik.

Mrs. Lela Stock and Mrs. Luella Testerman were guests.

Mrs. Chillik of the Lisbon-Salem Rd. will receive the club Aug. 19.

Honored On Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. John Schnader were honored with an open house reception Sunday in observance of their 25th wedding anniversary at their home on the Lisbon-Salem Rd.

The event was arranged by their children, Gene Schnader and Mrs. Michael Prasco, both of Salem, and Dennis Schnader at home and their families.

A call was received from Mrs. Schnader's brother and sister - in - law, Mr. and Mrs. James Smallwood of Cherry Creek, Colo., and from Cecil Eskew, another brother from Pinellas, Fla.

Mrs. Gene Schnader registered some 150 guests.

The home was decorated with flowers received from friends and vases that had graced the altar during morning worship at St. Jacob's United Church of Christ.

The color theme was yellow with green and white, the colors used 25 years ago by the Schnaders when they were wed at the New Lebanon United Presbyterian Church near Gavers by the Rev. Lewis Fraser. There also were touches of silver to commemorate the occasion.

The table, covered with white lace, held a three - tier white cake decorated with yellow rose buds and green leaves and silver candlesticks with yellow candles, those of the late Mrs. E. D. Fager.

Tour Harker Pottery, Guests Of Rotary

Tunisian Students Visit In Area

Ten college students from the University of Tunis in Tunisia, Africa, who toured the Harker China Co. in Chester Tuesday, were guests of the Rotary Club here.

They came to the United States under an international program whereby the Tunisian government and the U.S. State Department pay part of the expenses and the students the remainder. They are living in student quarters at Mt. Union for one week, during which time they are being taken on tours to various points of interest.

After leaving Mt. Union, they will live for four weeks with various families in a suburb south of Chicago. After leaving Chicago, they will join another group of 10 students now in Michigan, and the entire group then will visit Washington, D. C.

THE STUDENTS range in age from 23 to 25. All speak English and expect to teach when they return home. The spokesman for the group, Tijani Haddad, briefly outlined the history of Tunisia, its government and the Mohammedan religion.

The country contains some 49,000 square miles and has a population of 5 million. More than half the population is made up of persons 25 years of age or under.

Four languages are spoken. Arabic is most fluently used, then French, English and Italian in that order.

All of the students belong to an English club at the university.

Merrill Hall, who was originally scheduled to speak Tuesday, will appear later.

Hal Looks Over His Mail

By HAL BOYLE

Mondays are not only a bore —they're also dangerous. An insurance company has found that more accidents on the job occur on Monday than any other day. The second most dangerous work day is Friday.

To cut down on the cost of cowboys, Japanese ranchers in mountainous areas are experimenting with sound waves to control their cattle herds. So far the high frequency sounds, which to the human ear resemble the echo of church bells, have been used to lure the cattle to feeding stations. But if they don't get fed, the cattle quit responding to the sounds.

Retail Food Prices Seen Higher Than '67

WASHINGTON (AP) — Retail food prices are expected to average 3½ per cent higher this year over last, the Department of Agriculture said today.

The gain in 1967 from a year earlier averaged less than one per cent, the department said in a report on the national food situation.

Food prices appear to be leveling off a bit, with increases for the last three months of 1968 estimated to be smaller than those earlier in the year, the department said.

Q—What is the cause of multiple sclerosis? How does it affect a person? How is it diagnosed? Can the victim continue to work? Is there any cure?

Dr. Brandstadt

A — Multiple sclerosis is caused by the destruction of the myelin sheath (insulation) that surrounds the individual nerve fibers in the spinal cord. The cause of this destruction is not known. A recent theory is that it is the result of a deficiency of linolenic acid in the diet. This nutrient is found in seed oils and fresh fish. The theory has not been proved so studies to discover a viral cause are continuing.

—:—

THE SYMPTOMS vary. They include an unsteady gait, rigidity or weakness of various muscles, tremors that are made worse by trying to control them (intention tremors) and a staccato - type of speech. The disease is diagnosed by a careful study of the symptoms relating to the nervous system. Since the severity varies widely, some victims can continue to work while others can't.

—:—

TREATMENT HAS in general been unsatisfactory and improvement is often temporary. Much can be done, however, to ease the victim's symptoms. Although there is no cure, local cooling of the spinal cord will relieve the muscular rigidity, painful spasms and intention tremor. Dr. Irving Cooper of New York has reported excellent results in the relief of these same symptoms with an operation on the midbrain. Other treatments that have apparently been helpful are injections of a synthetic cortisonelike drug into the spinal canal and giving the victim vitamin K-3.

Q—I know a woman who got multiple sclerosis when she was 22. After about 24 years it left her. She didn't take anything for it. Have you ever heard of such a case?

A—Yes. It is characteristic of this disease for the victim to have spontaneous remissions. These are unpredictable as to when they will occur and to when they will occur and how long they will last. They make the task of evaluating new treatments very difficult because if a remission occurs when the treatment is being used the improvement may be falsely attributed to the treatment.

North Viet Premier Admits Hanoi Troops Fight In South

MANILA (AP) — Premier Pham Van Dong of North Vietnam has admitted that North Vietnamese troops are fighting alongsde the Viet Cong in South Vietnam, a Philippine weekly magazine reports.

The Graphic said the premier made the statement in an interview with the magazine's assistant publisher, J. Antonio Araneta Jr., and his wife.

If true, the admission would be the first public acknowledgement by a North Vietnamese official that troops from the North are operating in the South. The U.S. government believes that such an admission by North Vietnam might provide the basis for a discussion at the Paris peace talks of ways to get the North Vietnamese out of the South.

Araneta reported that he asked Pham: "Your government, in public statements, refuses to admit that you are actually helping the National Liberation Front in the South by sending troops and war materials? Why do you deny it?"

He said that Pham replied, with "a puzzled expression," "We do not deny that. We are indeed helping the NLF in every way we can—including the sending of our own troops.

"Since the U.S. invades our fatherland in the South and attacks the North, why should we renounce our right to defend our entire fatherland from every corner of our sacred territory?"

Araneta said in Manila today that he was surprised Dong made the statement and later confirmed it with North Vietnamese press officials.

"I asked why they had denied this previously and their answer was that they had never denied sending troops South, only that they denied committing aggression on the South," Araneta said.

Cuyahoga Unit Sets Up Teaching Program

CLEVELAND (AP)—An $80,000 program to teach foster parents, institutional child care workers and group home houseparents how to deal with problem children is being launched by the Cuyahoga County Welfare Department.

The program is being financed by the federal government, county funds and Case Western Reserve University.

Hal Looks Over His Mail

By HAL BOYLE

Mondays are not only a bore —they're also dangerous. An insurance company has found that more accidents on the job occur on Monday than any other day. The second most dangerous work day is Friday.

To cut down on the cost of cowboys, Japanese ranchers in mountainous areas are experimenting with sound waves to control their cattle herds. So far the high frequency sounds, which to the human ear resemble the echo of church bells, have been used to lure the cattle to feeding stations. But if they don't get fed, the cattle quit responding to the sounds.

Are you over 40, overweight and related to a diabetic? Then perhaps you should follow medical urging and take a simple test for diabetes yourself. It is estimated that some 1.6 million Americans probably are suffering from undiagnosed diabetes and by going without treatment may shorten their lives or risk blindness.

The boom in women's wigs has been followed by a boom in the men's hairpiece industry. Last year 100,000 balding U.S. men bought toupees or other forms of hirsute cranial adornment, and some 125,000 are expected to follow suit this year.

Quotable notables: "Life is not so bad if you have plenty of luck, a good physique, and not too much imagination."—Christopher Isherwood.

Menace on wheels: Some 53,000 persons died in traffic accidents in this country during 1967, notes the Automobile Legal Association, or about the total number of American lives lost in combat during World War I.

Sleep tip: Firm mattresses are restful, but not if they are too firm. A study found that sleepers on unduly hard mattresses changed positions every eight minutes, compared to a normal turnover rate of once every 12 minutes.

What is the best time of year for a child to begin taking piano lessons? Well, for one reason or another, most parents launch the musical career of their offspring in September, when school opens again.

American fears a future water shortage. But, according to the National Geographic Society, there is more fresh water hidden in the seeming dry earth than exists in all the nation's rivers, ponds, lakes and reservoirs. The problem is to get it out. At present about a fifth of all the water we use comes from underground sources.

Retail Food Prices Seen Higher Than '67

WASHINGTON (AP) — Retail food prices are expected to average 3½ per cent higher this year over last, the Department of Agriculture said today.

The gain in 1967 from a year earlier averaged less than one per cent, the department said in a report on the national food situation.

Vanik Asks Delegates To Stay Uncommitted

Bullet Wounds Found In Bodies Of Two

CINCINNATI (AP)—Autopsies revealed bullet wounds in the badly decomposed bodies of a Negro man and a white woman found Tuesday in a Walnut Hills apartment.

They were identified as James Hartman, 54, and Juanita Perkins, in her 30s.

The bodies were discovered when a neighbor called the building manager to complain of odors coming from the third - floor apartment.

Boy, Facing Blindness, To Wind Up Trip

ANAHEIM, Calif. (AP) — Little Buddy Labrozzi, facing blindness at 7, is winding up a western trip that included major tourist stops "in a state of excitement."

"He was excited the whole time," Rosanna Labrozzi said Tuesday of her son. Since Saturday "he's had the time of his life," she said.

The youngster and his mother fly home to Eastlake, Ohio, today to begin treatments of peripheral uveitis, an inflamation of the inner eye. His doctors say he will become totally blind soon.

When the people of Eastlake heard of it, they donated money for Buddy's trip that included visits to Disneyland and Knott's Berry Farm.

Buddy, his mother and a family friend spent most of Tuesday at Knott's Berry Farm. "Most of all, he seemed to like feeding the seals," Mrs. Labrozzi said.

Campers' Group Holds Meeting

"Smoky, the Bear" patches were distributed by Mrs. Marguerite Mattox at the meeting of the Rainbows End chapter of the National Campers and Hikers Association Monday night at the Wellsville Boat Club.

Emmett Ketchum presented the club with a 4-by-4-foot square sign in the shape of the outline of Ohio and bearing the club's emblem. Ott Weekley, wagonmaster, presided. It was announced that flowers were sent to Mrs. Helen Keim, a hospital patient.

Mrs. Norma Ketchum reported on the women's fund - raising project taken to the campout at Duquoin, Ill., and on the $5 donation made to the NCHA Dollars for Scholars fund. An inviation has been extended to the Ft. Steuben Trail Blazers chapter of Steubenville to be guests at a coverdish dinner Oct. 7. New emblems and new vests were distributed.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Panzott were enrolled as new members. Lunch was served 18 by Mrs. Ruth Miller and Mrs Viola Weekly. The next meeting will be Sept. 9, with Mrs. Alma McElroy and Mrs. Grace Snyder hostesses

Intruder Loots Home, Takes Record Albums

Shirley Wynn of Dodge St. told police Tuesday an intruder looted her home of six record albums and four towels while she was absent between Saturday and yesterday.

Meanwhile, Gary DeGarmo of 454 Orchard Grove Ave. told police Tuesday afternoon his car was looted sometime in the preceding month. The thief took aa pair of prescription sunglasses valued at $40, a can of spray paint and a folder containing various identification papers, he said.

A&P

For example.
Your A&P may sell as many as six or seven different brands of canned peas–national, regional and A&P's own brands.

Unusual?
Not for A&P...because WE CARE...about your complete satisfaction.

Three Join Midland Post

Three new members were accepted when Midland American Legion Post 481 met Monday night. Inducted were Clarence E. Hern of Vanport, Billy F. James of Midland, and Edward E. Best of Beaver.

Edward Brozic, Lincoln High School student, and Rex Speerhas, Western Beaver student, reported on their participation in Keystone Boys State at Pennsylvania State University in June.

It was announced that a dues increase passed at the state convention will be in effect after Sept. 25. Dues will be increased from $5 to $6.

The Beaver County American Legion will install officers Aug. 16 at 8 p.m. at South Side Memorial Post 952 of Hookstown.

The Sons of the American Legion participated in the firemen's parade at Chester last Friday. Seventeen boys were accompanied by Pike and Cody. The Sons will attend a Pirates game Aug. 31 at Forbes Field. Ticket orders must be in by next Monday. One adult may accompany each 20 members, Pike, commandant, advised.

Two Teen-Age Boys Escape From Jail

CIRCLEVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Two teen - age boys broke through their cell wall into a storage room and then broke through another wall in escaping from the Pickaway County Jail Tuesday night.

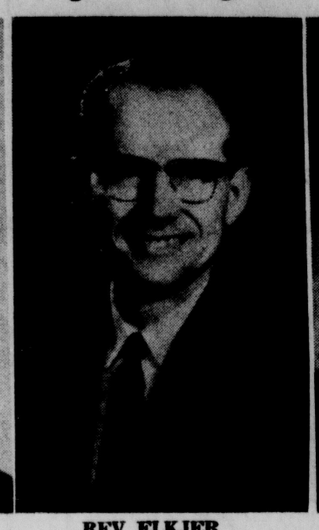
The jailbreak was discovered about 5:30 a.m. today. The youths lowered themselves into an alley on sheets that were tied otgether.

They were identified as Larry D. Robertson, 16, of Cleveland and Allan F. Billups, 17, of Fort Gay, W.Va. They were arrested near here July 24 in connection with a breaking and entering case in Pickaway Township and they previously had escaped from the Fairfield School for Boys near Lancaster.

Friday At Hollow Rock

'Missionary Day' Awaited

REV. CARROLL



REV. ELKJER

REV. BARKER

★ ★ ★

Seven To Recall Experiences In Talks

Missionary Day will be observed at Hollow Rock Friday.

Seven missionaries will review their experiences in the mission fields. They will speak at 10:30 a.m., 2:30 p.m. and 7:30.

The missionaries include the Rev. Richard Baker, missionary to Japan, who is a graduate of Marion (Ind.) College and Asbury Seminary, Wilmore, Ky. He served as one of the instructors at a Bible training college. Before going into the mission field, Rev. Barker and his wife served pastorates in Michigan for seven years.

REV. IVAN Carroll, missionary to India, will represent the World Gospel Mission. He and his wife have served in India since 1939. In earlier years, both taught in the Mission's South India Bible Institute, where Rev. Carroll was dean. During the last 16 years, the Carrolls have worked largely among the Indian national workers.

Woman Thinks Son In Ill-Fated Plane

PORT CLINTON, Ohio (AP) — A Cleveland woman has told the Coast Guard she thinks her son and three other Clevelanders were in a plane that crashed into Lake Erie off Put-In - Bay Sunday, killing five persons.

The Coast Guard recovered two bodies Tuesday. One was the student-pilot, Len Selders, 25, of Akron. The other body was not identified.

Gordon's mother said her son and three friends went to Put-In-Bay over the weekend for Sunday's regatta.

Court Income Boosted $158

Municipal Court revenue hit $5,179 during July, a gain of $158 from the $5,021 shown in June, according to the monthly report issued today by Clerk Wilbur J. Harmon.

The city's share of the revenue was comprised of $378 in costs from civil cases. $3,928 in fines, costs and forfeitures from criminal actions and $155 in penalties resulting from Ohio Highway Patrol citations.

In addition to the amount paid the city, the court turned over $180 to the state treasury, $442 to the county treasury and $94 to the Law Library Association.

The total amount handled by the court last month was $9,942, a drop of $722 from the $10,664 listed in July. The sums handled last month included $4,229 in the civil branch and $5,713 in the criminal branch.

A breakdown of cases showed 41 civil actions filed in July, with 32 disposed of and 162 left pending; 12 small claims cases filed, 11 disposed of and 13 pending; 98 city criminal cases filed, 123 disposed of and 93 pending. and 67 state criminal cases filed, 68 disposed of and 108 pending.

Officers Lists Thefts At North Side Homes

Mrs. Mabel Kinsey of 1511 Smithfield St. told officers an intruder forced a door to her garage sometime between midnight at 9:30 a.m. and took a power lawn mower, a hand mower, a box containing assorted tools and a spading fork. Tad Doland of 601 Orchard Grove Ave., who discovered the thefts, later found the hand mower and the tool box and tools near the former Jones Dry Cleaning Co. plant, next door to the Kinsey property, police said.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Betty Doland of 601 Orchard Grove Ave. told officers a 2¼-horsepower "yard-cart" belonging to her son, Tom, was stolen from the lawn at her home Tuesday. The cart was valued at $40, she said.

Picnic Will Be Held By Elks At Wellsville

On Sunday, Aug. 18, District Deputy Meryle Kenney of the lodge will conduct his first clinic for officers and committeemen.

The next regular meeting will be Aug. 26.

50 Homes Evacuated In Ammonia Leakage

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Authorities evacuated about 50 homes in a residential area south of nearby Germantown late Tuesday night when a tank truck began leaking anhydrous ammonia.

The danger ended about 5 a.m. today. The Montgomery County Sheriff's Office said the evacuations were precautionary and made mostly because the fumes could be dangerous if inhaled.

Three Join Midland Post

Three new members were accepted when Midland American Legion Post 481 met Monday night. Inducted were Clarence E. Hern of Vanport, Billy F. James of Midland, and Edward E. Best of Beaver.

Edward Brozic, Lincoln High School student, and Rex Speerhas, Western Beaver student, reported on their participation in Keystone Boys State at Pennsylvania State University in June.

It was announced that a dues increase passed at the state convention will be in effect after Sept. 25. Dues will be increased from $5 to $6.

The Beaver County American Legion will install officers Aug. 16 at 8 p.m. at South Side Memorial Post 952 of Hookstown.

The Sons of the American Legion participated in the firemen's parade at Chester last Friday. Seventeen boys were accompanied by Pike and Cody. The Sons will attend a Pirates game Aug. 31 at Forbes Field. Ticket orders must be in by next Monday. One adult may accompany each 20 members, Pike, commandant, advised.

The post decided to donate ten per cent of the profits of a flag sale to the Sons who helped with the sale.

Two Teen-Age Boys Escape From Jail

CIRCLEVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Two teen - age boys broke through their cell wall into a storage room and then broke through another wall in escaping from the Pickaway County Jail Tuesday night.

The jailbreak was discovered about 5:30 a.m. today. The youths lowered themselves into an alley on sheets that were tied otgether.

They were identified as Larry D. Robertson, 16, of Cleveland and Allan F. Billups, 17, of Fort Gay, W.Va. They were arrested near here July 24 in connection with a breaking and entering case in Pickaway Township and they previously had escaped from the Fairfield School for Boys near Lancaster.

ANN LANDERS

Abuse Of Hairdressers

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: Please, please lend a helping hand to the hairdressers of America.

I wonder how a woman who washes, irons and cleans all day would like to go to the home of a friend and do the friend's housework in the evening?

My last three "dinner" invitations turned out to be requests for free beauty work. My cousin wanted a permanent, my aunt asked me to give her a bleach job and a neighbor needed a haircut, shampoo and set and "couldn't get downtown."

This evening a woman who used to live near us when I was a child dropped over to my home. (I hadn't seen her in a year.) She brought her hair clips, setting lotion and a hairnet — said I owed her a favor because once she cooked dinner for us kids when Mom was in the hospital.

I couldn't refuse her, although I had been on my feet since 8 a.m. and my own hair needed shampooing but I was too tired to do it. Please print this letter, Ann. We abused hairdressers need someone to speak for us. Will you? — VARICOSE VICKIE.

Dear Vic: I'd be happy to but in the final analysis you must speak for yourselves.

Each of you must put down his (or her) swollen foot and say to friends (?) and relatives who would take advantage of your tender-heartedness, "Sorry, no. I work hard all day and I can't work at night, too, or I'll collapse."

Cradle Robber

Dear Ann: Is it so terrible for a 20-year-old girl to be in love with a boy 15? Before you jump to conclusions let me tell you that I look like 16 and Jerry looks like 18. I wear a size 8 dress and Jerry is 6 feet tall.

My mother and dad tell me I'm crazy to be seen with this guy but they don't understand we're really in love. I've dated dozens of older fellows but nobody compares with Jerry. He sings and plays the guitar and when I'm with him I forget all about his being a freshman in high school.

I've heard so many women at work complain because their husbands are too old and too tired that I believe a girl is smart to marry a man who is at least five years younger than she is. After all, Ann, when I'm 30 Jerry will be 25. What do you have to say about this? — HEART AFIRE

Dear Afire: I say leave the kid alone before you hear from the Juvenile Protective Association. He may not be undersized but he is definitely underage. In some states you could get into trouble for contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

Two-Timed

Dear Ann: When a fellow is engaged and he drops off his fiancee at midnight and meets another chick you call him a bum. What would you call an engaged girl who does the same thing? — BIG DADDY WHO NEEDS A FAST ANSWER.

Dear Add: I take it you're the guy whose fiancee is doing the two-timing. My answer is — why call her anything? Or better yet, why call her at all? Bow out now, Buddy.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

South Side's Board Seeks To Fill Post

Applications are being accepted at the office of Victor F. Thomas Jr., supervising principal. The new principal will succeed William M. Kerr, who has accepted a position as principal of Monaca Junior High School. Kerr's resignation was appoved at Monday's meeting.

Personnel hired were Miss Suzette Buttermore of New Brighton, elementary art and intermediate classroom teacher; Miss Mary D. Hogue of Beaver Falls, senior high home economics; Miss Catherine A. Petrush of Midland, senior high English teacher; Mrs. Dorothy E. Johnson of Beaver, junior high reading and spelling; and Mrs. Beatrice Vespaziana of Hookstown RD 1, secretary to Thomas. Mrs. Vespaziani replaces Miss Lois Ann Swearingen, who will be married.

Atty. Eugene Morris, solicitor, was directed to request a hearing and to prepare a case before the Beaver County board asking that South Side remain a separate administrative unit.

The board adopted a resolution petitioning the Beaver County Board of Assessment and Revision of Taxes to conduct a study and an appraisal of the minerals underying land situated in Beaver County and to assess the value of such minerals, and to reassess such land where these minerals are found.

The board approved an agreement with Potter Township to send 66 pupils in grades two through six to Potter Township Schools for the next year, 1968-69, because of overcrowded conditions at South Side.

The South Side band will participate in the Hookstown Grange Fair Aug. 24. Boy Scouts of the area will use the elementary multi - purpose room Sept. 30 for "Boy Scout Night."

Long Beaten For New U.S. Senate Bid

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Lt. Gov. Thomas F. Eagleton, 39, of St. Louis, defeated U.S. Sen. Edward V. Long in Missouri's hot contest for the Democratic senatorial nomination Tuesday.

True Davis, wealthy St. Joseph businessman who is a former ambassador to Switzerland and former assistant secretary of the Treasury ran third.

With the vote in from 4,138 of the state's 4,358 precincts, the count was Eagleton 205,078, Long 186,286 and Davis 162,261.

Life magazine said in May 1967, that Long misused his Senate subcommittee's investigations of eavesdropping and wiretapping in an effort to help James R. Hoffa, Teamsters Union president, now in prison. The magazine also said Long received $48,000 in legal fees from Morris Shenker, St. Louis lawyer who was Hoffa's attorney.

Long said the fees came from five clients he had referred to Shenker and that Shenker was not Hoffa's attorney in 1963 and 1964 when the $48,000 was paid. He called the charges a "dead issue" and a political smear.

The Senate Ethics Committee, after a four-month investigation, ruled that there was no wrong-doing on Long's part. The committee later reopened its inquiry and has issued no new report.

Long is 60, a lawyer and banker, and formerly was Missouri lieutenant governor and state senator. He has served in the Senate since 1960, when he was appointed to succeed the late Thomas C. Hennings of St. Louis.

Eagleton, who is finishing his first term as lieutenant governor, formerly was Missouri attorney general and St. Louis circuit attorney.

There was no contest for the governorship nominations.

Another Symington from Missouri also scored a primary victory. James W. Symington, a son of Missouri's senior U.S. senator, Stuart Symington, won the Democratic nomination in the second congressional district. He will be opposed by Republican Hugh Scott.

Motor Vehicle Registrations Hit Record High

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)— A record high of 5,430,875 motor vehicle registrations during the first five months of the registration year was reported by State Auditor Roger Cloud today.

His figures showed registrations were up 2.9 per cent over the same period last year, bolstered by 4,309,046 passenger car licenses.

The passenger car registrations were up 97,198 or 2.3 per cent over this time last year.

License revenues this year to date amount to $96.3 million, up $3,838,349.

Registration of other vehicles and their increases included house trailers, 83,740, up 18,855; motorcycles, 100,810, up 11,652; trucks, 352,160, up 10,948; farm trucks, 130,056, up 1,264.

Stokes Reveals Education Plan For Policemen

CLEVELAND (AP)— Mayor Carl B. Stokes Tuesday announced an intensive educational program for the Cleveland Police Department which will probably include courses in police-community relations and guerilla warfare.

Stokes said $91,000 needed for the program would come from a $256,615 grand made Tuesday by the Ford Foundation to the Greater Cleveland Associated Foundation.

A campaign to put 500 more policemen on city streets by early next year was also announced by Stokes.

He said the city will advertise nationally for the first time in an attempt to attract recruits and a police training coordinating office would be established.

Personalities In The News

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Michael Kinney suffered his first defeat at the polls Tuesday since he first won election to the Missouri Senate in 1913.

He was defeated in the primary contest, 3,611 to 2,974, by Raymond Howard, 33, a Negro state representative serving his second term in the state house. The district is now predominantly Negro.

As the vote tabulations rolled in, Kinney said of Howard: "It's hard to keep up with him, he's got a sports car."

50 Negroes Admitted To GOP's Convention

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — A creaking covered wagon hauled by two black mules and escorted by more than 70 denim-clad Negroes dripping with perspiration stopped Tuesday at the door of the Fontainebleau Hotel.

The Poor People's Campaign contingent, led by the Rev. Ralph David Abernathy, picked this symbol of opulence along the Florida Gold Coast to launch efforts for a hearing by the Republican National Convention.

Abernathy led the group inside the gold-leafed, marble lobby where the chanting demonstrators confronted confused convention delegates and worried hotel staff members.

One of the chants went: "I may not stay in a hotel, but I am somebody—may not be a candidate, but I am somebody —I am a child of God."

Then, after a traffic-snarling march of more than a mile, the demonstrators arrived at Convention Hall. Abernathy obtained tickets to take his self-proclaimed "51st State of Hunger" past the fences and cordons of police.

About 50 of the demonstrators sat quietly in the hall and listened as Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois presented the party platform.

Outside the hall, about 1,000 aging residents of the Miami Beach retirement neighborhoods carried signs reading: "GOP—Don't Forget Your Parents" and "Social Security No Longer Offers Us Security."

After Abernathy's followers were given tickets to the convention, Abernathy said he wanted to address the delegates. That request was not answered.

Sen. Charles H. Percy of Illinois said he supplied Abernathy two of the scarce tickets for admission to Convention Hall. Minutes later Abernathy said he had received 50 tickets from Ray C. Bliss, the Republican national chairman, through the help of Rep. Ogden R. Reid of New York and Clarence Townes, chairman of the GOP minorities committee.

The tickets were good only Tuesday but Reid said, "We'll make them good every day."

McCarthy Wooing Ohio's Delegates In Bid Today

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Sen. Eugene McCarthy's presidential campaign moved into Ohio today—aimed primarily at wooing the state's National Democratic Convention delegates into the Minnesota senator's camp.

McCarthy will be introduced at the rally by John J. Gilligan of Cincinnati, Democratic candidate for the U.S. Senate who ousted incumbent Sen. Frank J. Lausche in a primary battle.

Following the rally, McCarthy was to meet with Ohio delegates from 12:30 to 2 p.m. at the Neil House hotel before leaving for Cleveland to address the International Typographical Union convention.

Supporters of McCarthy said they were hoping that his personal appeal to the 126 delegates to the Aug. 26 convention in Chicago would convince them to support him as "the only Democratic candidate who can win in November."

Geoffrey Gibson of the Franklin County Democrats for McCarthy said Tuesday that some polls have shown McCarthy would have a better chance than Vice President Hubert Humphrey of defeating Richard Nixon in Ohio.

And Gibson contended that Humphrey's support was slipping while McCarthy was gaining in both popular and delegate support. He said McCarthy could count on the support of 26 Ohio delegates at this time.

Gibson criticized Frazier Reams Jr., the 1966 candidate for governor, for his opposition to an unofficial August Democratic primary to determine which candidate the people prefer.

Reams said it would give an undue amount of publicity to one particular candidate, apparently referring to McCarthy.

The mock primary is to be conducted by the Committee for the August Primary at about 6,000 polling places throughout the state. Exact date is still being discussed.

7 Policemen And Woman Wounded In Illinois Riot

HARVEY, Ill. (AP) — Sporadic gunfre wounded seven policemen and a woman during a disturbance caused by Negro youths, and scores of law enforcement officers moved in early today to secure the troubled area.

State, county and local police officers, helmeted and heavily armed, massed at a food store parking lot waiting for action, but the area was calm hours after the initial outburst late Tuesday night.

Mayor James Haines of Harvey imposed a curfew until dawn in the south suburban Chicago community which has grown increasingly tense since a police officer shot a fleeing Negro youth June 30.

Haines, who is white, said five police officers were wounded from a single shotgun blast as they dispersed a crowd of 75 to 100 Negro youths who were throwing rocks at passing cars and shouting expletives.

He blamed the disorder, which started late Tuesday night, on the oppressive heat. "On evenings like this it's more comfortable to stand on a street corner," he said.

The disturbance centered in a four-block-square area near the borderline of Harvey and Dixmoor, suburbs 17 miles south of downtown Chicago with a population of 35,000.

The mayor said the Negro youths massed at a car wash and became abusive. Police moved in and ordered the youths to scatter. They remained in the general area for a time and several shots were fired.

Eight arrests were reported, mostly for disorderly conduct.

A spokesman for Ingalls Hospital said none of the seven policemen—three from Harvey and four from neighboring Dolton—was critically injured. Three officers were admitted for treatment. One officer was shot in the face as he patrolled the area in a squad car.

Three other persons were treated for minor injuries and released, including a Negro woman, who said she was struck by two police bullets while officers were "chasing the rioters and shooting at them." She said the bullets penetrated a wall of her home, striking her in the left arm near the elbow and in the right wrist. She received first aid at Ingalls Hospital.

Tuesday's disorders marked the second straight night of trouble in Harvey. Several hundred Negroes lit a bonfire Monday night and danced around it playing drums and throwing rocks. Police action was limited to cordoning off traffic from the area.

Eighty persons—43 Negroes and 37 whites—were arrested before peace was restored two days later. More than 50 white persons were injured during the rioting, most of them stoned by Negroes as they drove through the area.

Harriman Raps North Viet On Record Troops

PARIS (AP) — Ambassador W. Averell Harriman charged today that North Vietnam has responded to President Johnson's offer to end all bombing of the North "not by restraint" but by sending a record number of troops South last month.

"They have given us no indication of restraint," Harriman declared, "and as I have said they have done the reverse—they've given indication of increased threats."

Going into the 16th meeting of the Paris peace talks, the U.S. negotiator said he would bring out "the consistency with which President Johnson has been directing the background of these negotiations."

North Vietnam's chief negotiator, Xuan Thuy, was reported still slightly ill and did not attend today's meeting. His delegation was led by his No. 2 man, Ha Van Lau.

Meanwhile, the North Vietnamese Communist party's newspaper, Nhan Dan, accused the United States of stalling the peace talks and vowed no progress will be made in Paris until the United States agrees to "unconditional cessation to the bombing and all other acts of aggression against the Democratic Republic of Vietnam."

The distinction between an heir apparent and an heir presumptive to the British throne is that the former is one who has legal right of succession if he outlives the king or queen who holds the throne. An heir presumptive is one who could succeed to the throne only if there is no heir apparent.

Will Submit Levy

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Columbus Board of Education decided Tuesday to submit an 8.2 mill school levy to the city voters in November. It would raise an estimated $13.3 million. It would supply funds needed to carry out recommendations made June 15 in a special report by the Ohio State University Advisory Commission on city schools.

LEGAL NOTICE

AN ORDINANCE TO PROVIDE FOR THE ISSUANCE OF NOTES IN ANTICIPATION OF THE LEVY OF SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS AND IN ANTICIPATION OF THE ISSUANCE OF BONDS TO PAY THE PROPERTY OWNERS' AND THE CITY'S PORTIONS OF THE COST OF IMPROVING THE MAINE BOULEVARD-MONTROSE AVENUE AREA, ALTON STREET AREA, AND WOOSTER AVENUE AREA BY CONSTRUCTING SANITARY SEWERS OF HARD BURNED VITRIFIED SEWER PIPE IN THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO, AND DECLARING AN EMERGENCY.

BE IT ORDAINED by the Council of the City of East Liverpool, State of Ohio:

SECTION 1. That it is hereby declared necessary to issue bonds of the City of East Liverpool in the principal sum of Forty-three Thousand One Hundred Sixty-seven Dollars ($43,167.00) for the purpose of paying the property owners' portion, in anticipation of the collection of special assessments, and the City's portion of the cost of the improvement of the Maine Boulevard-Montrose Avenue area, Alton Street area, and Wooster Avenue area by constructing sanitary sewers of hard burned vitrified sewer pipe thereon, as provided in Resolution Number 22, 1968, adopted May 20, 1968. Of said amount, the City's portion is Thirty-seven Thousand Three Hundred Seventy-three Dollars ($37,373.00) and the property owners' portion is Five Thousand Seven Hundred Ninety-four Dollars ($5,794.00).

SECTION 2. That said bonds shall be dated approximately the 1st day of August, 1969, shall bear interest at the estimated rate of not less than five per cent (5%) per annum, payable semi-annually, until the principal sum is paid, and shall mature in five substantially equal annual installments after their issuance.

SECTION 3. That for the purpose of raising money in anticipation of the levy and collection of special assessments and of the issuance of the aforesaid bonds for the above described improvement, it is hereby declared necessary to issue and there shall be issued a note or notes of said City in the principal amount of Forty-three Thousand One Hundred Sixty-seven Dollars ($43,167.00).

That such anticipatory note or notes in the amount aforesaid shall bear interest at such rate not exceeding five per centum (5%) per annum, payable at maturity; shall be dated the date of issuance; shall mature on or before one year from said date of issuance; and shall be executed and delivered in such numbers and denominations as may be requested by the purchaser thereof.

SECTION 4. Such notes shall be executed by the Mayor and Auditor and bear the seal of the corporation. They shall be payable at the office of the Treasurer of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio, and shall express upon their faces the purpose for which they are issued and that they are issued pursuant to this Ordinance.

SECTION 5. Subject to the rejection of said note or notes by the Treasurer as fiscal officer in charge of the Bond Retirement Fund, said notes are hereby awarded and sold either to The First National Bank of East Liverpool, Ohio, or to the Potters Bank and Trust Company of East Liverpool, Ohio, at par value thereof. The proceeds from such sale, except any premium and accrued interest thereon, shall be paid into the proper fund and used for the purpose aforesaid and for no other purpose, and for which purpose said money is hereby appropriated. Any premium and accrued interest shall be transferred to the Bond Retirement Fund to be applied in the payment of principal and interest of said notes in the manner provided by law.

SECTION 6. Said notes shall be the full general obligation of the City of East Liverpool and the full faith, credit and revenue of said City are hereby pledged for the prompt payment of the same. The par value to be received from the sale of the bonds anticipated by said notes and any excess funds resulting from the issuance of said notes shall to the extent necessary be used only for the retirement of said notes at maturity, together with interest thereon, and is hereby pledged for such purposes.

SECTION 7. The Clerk is hereby directed to forward a certified copy of this Ordinance to the County Auditor.

SECTION 8. This Ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency measure necessary for the preservation of the public welfare, health, property and safety of the City of East Liverpool and it shall go into effect immediately upon passage and approval by the Mayor of this City. Said emergency lies in the fact that said improvements are necessary to avoid unsanitary conditions due to new construction and present residences in the areas to be improved, and to provide for proper sewer drainage, and that said construction can only be enabled by the immediate issuance and sale of the notes herein authorized, and is therefore necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health, peace and safety of said City.

ANN LANDERS

Abuse Of Hairdressers

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: Please, please lend a helping hand to the hairdressers of America.

I wonder how a woman who washes, irons and cleans all day would like to go to the home of a friend and do the friend's housework in the evening?

My last three "dinner" invitations turned out to be requests for free beauty work. My cousin wanted a permanent, my aunt asked me to give her a bleach job and a neighbor needed a haircut, shampoo and set and "couldn't get downtown."

This evening a woman who used to live near us when I was a child dropped over to my home. (I hadn't seen her in a year.) She brought her hair clips, setting lotion and a hairnet — said I owed her a favor because once she cooked dinner for us kids when Mom was in the hospital.

I couldn't refuse her, although I had been on my feet since 8 a.m. and my own hair needed shampooing but I was too tired to do it. Please print this letter, Ann. We abused hairdressers need someone to speak for us. Will you? — VARICOSE VICKIE.

Dear Vic: I'd be happy to but in the final analysis you must speak for yourselves.

Each of you must put down his (or her) swollen foot and say to friends (?) and relatives who would take advantage of your tender-heartedness, "Sorry, no. I work hard all day and I can't work at night, too, or I'll collapse."

Cradle Robber

Dear Ann: Is it so terrible for a 20-year-old girl to be in love with a boy 15? Before you jump to conclusions let me tell you that I look like 16 and Jerry looks like 18. I wear a size 8 dress and Jerry is 6 feet tall.

My mother and dad tell me I'm crazy to be seen with this guy but they don't understand we're really in love. I've dated dozens of older fellows but nobody compares with Jerry. He sings and plays the guitar and when I'm with him I forget all about his being a freshman in high school.

I've heard so many women at work complain because their husbands are too old and too tired that I believe a girl is smart to marry a man who is at least five years younger than she is. After all, Ann, when I'm 30 Jerry will be 25. What do you have to say about this? — HEART AFIRE

Dear Afire: I say leave the kid alone before you hear from the Juvenile Protective Association. He may not be undersized but he is definitely underage. In some states you could get into trouble for contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

Two-Timed

Dear Ann: When a fellow is engaged and he drops off his fiancee at midnight and meets another chick you call him a bum. What would you call an engaged girl who does the same thing? — BIG DADDY WHO NEEDS A FAST ANSWER.

Dear Add: I take it you're the guy whose fiancee is doing the two-timing. My answer is — why call her anything? Or better yet, why call her at all? Bow out now, Buddy.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

South Side's Board Seeks To Fill Post

South Side Beaver Jointure will hire a new elementary principal at a special meeting Aug. 19 at 8 p.m.

Applications are being accepted at the office of Victor F. Thomas Jr., supervising principal. The new principal will succeed William M. Kerr, who has accepted a position as principal of Monaca Junior High School. Kerr's resignation was appoved at Monday's meeting.

Personnel hired were Miss Suzette Buttermore of New Brighton, elementary art and intermediate classroom teacher; Miss Mary D. Hogue of Beaver Falls, senior high home economics; Miss Catherine A. Petrush of Midland, senior high English teacher; Mrs. Dorothy E. Johnson of Beaver, junior high reading and spelling; and Mrs. Beatrice Vespaziana of Hookstown RD 1, secretary to Thomas. Mrs. Vespaziani replaces Miss Lois Ann Swearingen, who will be married.

Atty. Eugene Morris, solicitor, was directed to request a hearing and to prepare a case before the Beaver County board asking that South Side remain a separate administrative unit.

The board adopted a resolution petitioning the Beaver County Board of Assessment and Revision of Taxes to conduct a study and an appraisal of the minerals underying land situated in Beaver County and to assess the value of such minerals, and to reassess such land where these minerals are found.

The board approved an agreement with Potter Township to send 66 pupils in grades two through six to Potter Township Schools for the next year, 1968-69, because of overcrowded conditions at South Side.

The South Side band will participate in the Hookstown Grange Fair Aug. 24. Boy Scouts of the area will use the elementary multi - purpose room Sept. 30 for "Boy Scout Night."

Long Beaten For New U.S. Senate Bid

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Lt. Gov. Thomas F. Eagleton, 39, of St. Louis, defeated U.S. Sen. Edward V. Long in Missouri's hot contest for the Democratic senatorial nomination Tuesday.

True Davis, wealthy St. Joseph businessman who is a former ambassador to Switzerland and former assistant secretary of the Treasury ran third.

With the vote in from 4,138 of the state's 4,358 precincts, the count was Eagleton 205,078, Long 186,286 and Davis 162,261.

Life magazine said in May 1967, that Long misused his Senate subcommittee's investigations of eavesdropping and wiretapping in an effort to help James R. Hoffa, Teamsters Union president, now in prison. The magazine also said Long received $48,000 in legal fees from Morris Shenker, St. Louis lawyer who was Hoffa's attorney.

Long said the fees came from five clients he had referred to Shenker and that Shenker was not Hoffa's attorney in 1963 and 1964 when the $48,000 was paid. He called the charges a "dead issue" and a political smear.

The Senate Ethics Committee, after a four-month investigation, ruled that there was no wrong-doing on Long's part. The committee later reopened its inquiry and has issued no new report.

Long is 60, a lawyer and banker, and formerly was Missouri lieutenant governor and state senator. He has served in the Senate since 1960, when he was appointed to succeed the late Thomas C. Hennings of St. Louis.

Eagleton, who is finishing his first term as lieutenant governor, formerly was Missouri attorney general and St. Louis circuit attorney.

There was no contest for the governorship nominations.

Another Symington from Missouri also scored a primary victory. James W. Symington, a son of Missouri's senior U.S. senator, Stuart Symington, won the Democratic nomination in the second congressional district. He will be opposed by Republican Hugh Scott.

Motor Vehicle Registrations Hit Record High

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)— A record high of 5,430,875 motor vehicle registrations during the first five months of the registration year was reported by State Auditor Roger Cloud today.

His figures showed registrations were up 2.9 per cent over the same period last year, bolstered by 4,309,046 passenger car licenses.

The passenger car registrations were up 97,198 or 2.3 per cent over this time last year.

License revenues this year to date amount to $96.3 million, up $3,838,349.

Registration of other vehicles and their increases included house trailers, 83,740, up 18,855; motorcycles, 100,810, up 11,652; trucks, 352,160, up 10,948; farm trucks, 130,056, up 1,264.

Stokes Reveals Education Plan For Policemen

CLEVELAND (AP)— Mayor Carl B. Stokes Tuesday announced an intensive educational program for the Cleveland Police Department which will probably include courses in police-community relations and guerilla warfare.

Stokes said $91,000 needed for the program would come from a $256,615 grand made Tuesday by the Ford Foundation to the Greater Cleveland Associated Foundation.

A campaign to put 500 more policemen on city streets by early next year was also announced by Stokes.

He said the city will advertise nationally for the first time in an attempt to attract recruits and a police training coordinating office would be established.

Safety Director Joseph F. Mcmanamon said his department will pay tuition costs incurred by policemen for successfully completed college course.

Personalities In The News

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Michael Kinney suffered his first defeat at the polls Tuesday since he first won election to the Missouri Senate in 1913.

The 94-year-old legislator lost in his bid for renomination on the Democratic ticket in the 5th senatorial district which includes downtown St. Louis.

He was defeated in the primary contest, 3,611 to 2,974, by Raymond Howard, 33, a Negro state representative serving his second term in the state house. The district is now predominantly Negro.

As the vote tabulations rolled in, Kinney said of Howard: "It's hard to keep up with him, he's got a sports car."

50 Negroes Admitted To GOP's Convention

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — A creaking covered wagon hauled by two black mules and escorted by more than 70 denim-clad Negroes dripping with perspiration stopped Tuesday at the door of the Fontainebleau Hotel.

The Poor People's Campaign contingent, led by the Rev. Ralph David Abernathy, picked this symbol of opulence along the Florida Gold Coast to launch efforts for a hearing by the Republican National Convention.

Abernathy led the group inside the gold-leafed, marble lobby where the chanting demonstrators confronted confused convention delegates and worried hotel staff members.

One of the chants went: "I may not stay in a hotel, but I am somebody—may not be a candidate, but I am somebody —I am a child of God."

Then, after a traffic-snarling march of more than a mile, the demonstrators arrived at Convention Hall. Abernathy obtained tickets to take his self-proclaimed "51st State of Hunger" past the fences and cordons of police.

While the people went inside, the mules were taken back to their stalls.

About 50 of the demonstrators sat quietly in the hall and listened as Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois presented the party platform.

Outside the hall, about 1,000 aging residents of the Miami Beach retirement neighborhoods carried signs reading: "GOP—Don't Forget Your Parents" and "Social Security No Longer Offers Us Security."

After Abernathy's followers were given tickets to the convention, Abernathy said he wanted to address the delegates. That request was not answered.

Sen. Charles H. Percy of Illinois said he supplied Abernathy two of the scarce tickets for admission to Convention Hall. Minutes later Abernathy said he had received 50 tickets from Ray C. Bliss, the Republican national chairman, through the help of Rep. Ogden R. Reid of New York and Clarence Townes, chairman of the GOP minorities committee.

McCarthy Wooing Ohio's Delegates In Bid Today

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Sen. Eugene McCarthy's presidential campaign moved into Ohio today—aimed primarily at wooing the state's National Democratic Convention delegates into the Minnesota senator's camp.

McCarthy will be introduced at the rally by John J. Gilligan of Cincinnati, Democratic candidate for the U.S. Senate who ousted incumbent Sen. Frank J. Lausche in a primary battle.

Following the rally, McCarthy was to meet with Ohio delegates from 12:30 to 2 p.m. at the Neil House hotel before leaving for Cleveland to address the International Typographical Union convention.

Supporters of McCarthy said they were hoping that his personal appeal to the 126 delegates to the Aug. 26 convention in Chicago would convince them to support him as "the only Democratic candidate who can win in November."

Geoffrey Gibson of the Franklin County Democrats for McCarthy said Tuesday that some polls have shown McCarthy would have a better chance than Vice President Hubert Humphrey of defeating Richard Nixon in Ohio.

And Gibson contended that Humphrey's support was slipping while McCarthy was gaining in both popular and delegate support. He said McCarthy could count on the support of 26 Ohio delegates at this time.

Gibson criticized Frazier Reams Jr., the 1966 candidate for governor, for his opposition to an unofficial August Democratic primary to determine which candidate the people prefer.

Reams said it would give an undue amount of publicity to one particular candidate, apparently referring to McCarthy.

The mock primary is to be conducted by the Committee for the August Primary at about 6,000 polling places throughout the state. Exact date is still being discussed.

7 Policemen And Woman Wounded In Illinois Riot

HARVEY, Ill. (AP) — Sporadic gunfre wounded seven policemen and a woman during a disturbance caused by Negro youths, and scores of law enforcement officers moved in early today to secure the troubled area.

State, county and local police officers, helmeted and heavily armed, massed at a food store parking lot waiting for action, but the area was calm hours after the initial outburst late Tuesday night.

Mayor James Haines of Harvey imposed a curfew until dawn in the south suburban Chicago community which has grown increasingly tense since a police officer shot a fleeing Negro youth June 30.

Haines, who is white, said five police officers were wounded from a single shotgun blast as they dispersed a crowd of 75 to 100 Negro youths who were throwing rocks at passing cars and shouting expletives.

He blamed the disorder, which started late Tuesday night, on the oppressive heat. "On evenings like this it's more comfortable to stand on a street corner," he said.

The disturbance centered in a four-block-square area near the borderline of Harvey and Dixmoor, suburbs 17 miles south of downtown Chicago with a population of 35,000.

The mayor said the Negro youths massed at a car wash and became abusive. Police moved in and ordered the youths to scatter. They remained in the general area for a time and several shots were fired.

Eight arrests were reported, mostly for disorderly conduct.

A spokesman for Ingalls Hospital said none of the seven policemen—three from Harvey and four from neighboring Dolton—was critically injured. Three officers were admitted for treatment. One officer was shot in the face as he patrolled the area in a squad car.

Three other persons were treated for minor injuries and released, including a Negro woman, who said she was struck by two police bullets while officers were "chasing the rioters and shooting at them." She said the bullets penetrated a wall of her home, striking her in the left arm near the elbow and in the right wrist. She received first aid at Ingalls Hospital.

Tuesday's disorders marked the second straight night of trouble in Harvey. Several hundred Negroes lit a bonfire Monday night and danced around it playing drums and throwing rocks. Police action was limited to cordoning off traffic from the area.

Eighty persons—43 Negroes and 37 whites—were arrested before peace was restored two days later. More than 50 white persons were injured during the rioting, most of them stoned by Negroes as they drove through the area.

Harriman Raps North Viet On Record Troops

PARIS (AP) — Ambassador W. Averell Harriman charged today that North Vietnam has responded to President Johnson's offer to end all bombing of the North "not by restraint" but by sending a record number of troops South last month.

"They have given us no indication of restraint," Harriman declared, "and as I have said they have done the reverse—they've given indication of increased threats."

Going into the 16th meeting of the Paris peace talks, the U.S. negotiator said he would bring out "the consistency with which President Johnson has been directing the background of these negotiations."

North Vietnam's chief negotiator, Xuan Thuy, was reported still slightly ill and did not attend today's meeting. His delegation was led by his No. 2 man, Ha Van Lau.

Meanwhile, the North Vietnamese Communist party's newspaper, Nhan Dan, accused the United States of stalling the peace talks and vowed no progress will be made in Paris until the United States agrees to "unconditional cessation to the bombing and all other acts of aggression against the Democratic Republic of Vietnam."

The distinction between an heir apparent and an heir presumptive to the British throne is that the former is one who has legal right of succession if he outlives the king or queen who holds the throne. An heir presumptive is one who could succeed to the throne only if there is no heir apparent.

Will Submit Levy

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Columbus Board of Education decided Tuesday to submit an 8.2 mill school levy to the city voters in November. It would raise an estimated $13.3 million. It would supply funds needed to carry out recommendations made June 15 in a special report by the Ohio State University Advisory Commission on city schools.

LEGAL NOTICE

AN ORDINANCE TO PROVIDE FOR THE ISSUANCE OF NOTES IN ANTICIPATION OF THE LEVY OF SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS AND IN ANTICIPATION OF THE ISSUANCE OF BONDS TO PAY THE PROPERTY OWNERS' AND THE CITY'S PORTIONS OF THE COST OF IMPROVING THE MAINE BOULEVARD-MONTROSE AVENUE AREA, ALTON STREET AREA, AND WOOSTER AVENUE AREA BY CONSTRUCTING SANITARY SEWERS OF HARD BURNED VITRIFIED SEWER PIPE IN THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO, AND DECLARING AN EMERGENCY.

SECTION 1. That it is hereby declared necessary to issue bonds of the City of East Liverpool in the principal sum of Forty-three Thousand One Hundred Sixty-seven Dollars ($43,167.00) for the purpose of paying the property owners' portion, in anticipation of the collection of special assessments, and the City's portion of the cost of the improvement of the Maine Boulevard-Montrose Avenue area, Alton Street area, and Wooster Avenue area by constructing sanitary sewers of hard burned vitrified sewer pipe thereon, as provided in Resolution Number 22, 1968, adopted May 20, 1968. Of said amount, the City's portion is Thirty-seven Thousand Three Hundred Seventy-three Dollars ($37,373.00) and the property owners' portion is Five Thousand Seven Hundred Ninety-four Dollars ($5,794.00).

SECTION 2. That said bonds shall be dated approximately the 1st day of August, 1969, shall bear interest at the estimated rate of not less than five per cent (5%) per annum, payable semi-annually, until the principal sum is paid, and shall mature in five substantially equal annual installments after their issuance.

SECTION 3. That for the purpose of raising money in anticipation of the levy and collection of special assessments and of the issuance of the aforesaid bonds for the above described improvement, it is hereby declared necessary to issue and there shall be issued a note or notes of said City in the principal amount of Forty-three Thousand One Hundred Sixty-seven Dollars ($43,167.00).

That such anticipatory note or notes in the amount aforesaid shall bear interest at such rate not exceeding five per centum (5%) per annum, payable at maturity; shall be dated the date of issuance; shall mature on or before one year from said date of issuance; and shall be executed and delivered in such numbers and denominations as may be requested by the purchaser thereof.

SECTION 4. Such notes shall be executed by the Mayor and Auditor and bear the seal of the corporation. They shall be payable at the office of the Treasurer of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio, and shall express upon their faces the purpose for which they are issued and that they are issued pursuant to this Ordinance.

SECTION 5. Subject to the rejection of said note or notes by the Treasurer as fiscal officer in charge of the Bond Retirement Fund, said notes are hereby awarded and sold either to The First National Bank of East Liverpool, Ohio, or to the Potters Bank and Trust Company of East Liverpool, Ohio, at par value thereof. The proceeds from such sale, except any premium and accrued interest thereon, shall be paid into the proper fund and used for the purpose aforesaid and for no other purpose, and for which purpose said money is hereby appropriated. Any premium and accrued interest shall be transferred to the Bond Retirement Fund to be applied in the payment of principal and interest of said notes in the manner provided by law.

SECTION 6. Said notes shall be the full general obligation of the City of East Liverpool and the full faith, credit and revenue of said City are hereby pledged for the prompt payment of the same. The par value to be received from the sale of the bonds anticipated by said notes and any excess funds resulting from the issuance of said notes shall to the extent necessary be used only for the retirement of said notes at maturity, together with interest thereon, and is hereby pledged for such purposes.

SECTION 7. The Clerk is hereby directed to forward a certified copy of this Ordinance to the County Auditor.

SECTION 8. This Ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency measure necessary for the preservation of the public welfare, health, property and safety of the City of East Liverpool and it shall go into effect immediately upon passage and approval by the Mayor of this City. Said emergency lies in the fact that said improvements are necessary to avoid unsanitary conditions due to new construction and present residences in the areas to be improved, and to provide for proper sewer drainage, and that said construction can only be enabled by the immediate issuance and sale of the notes herein authorized, and is therefore necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health, peace and safety of said City.

ORDINANCE NUMBER 53, 1968.
AN ORDINANCE TO REPEAL ORDINANCE NUMBER 50, 1968, PROVIDING FOR THE ISSUANCE OF NOTES IN ANTICIPATION OF THE LEVY OF SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS AND IN ANTICIPATION OF THE ISSUANCE OF BONDS TO PAY THE PROPERTY OWNERS' AND THE CITY'S PORTIONS OF THE COST OF IMPROVING THE MAINE BOULEVARD-MONTROSE AVENUE AREA, ALTON STREET AREA, AND WOOSTER AVENUE AREA BY CONSTRUCTING SANITARY SEWERS OF HARD BURNED VITRIFIED SEWER PIPE IN THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO, AND DECLARING AN EMERGENCY.

WHEREAS, Ordinance Number 50, 1968, provided for the issuance of notes in anticipation of the levy of special assessments and in anticipation of the issuance of bonds to pay the property owners' and the city's portions of the cost of improving the Maine Boulevard-Montrose Avenue area, Alton Street area, and Wooster Avenue area by constructing sanitary sewers of hard burned vitrified sewer pipe in the City of East Liverpool, Ohio, and declaring an emergency, and

WHEREAS, bonding counsel have advised that in order to provide for the proper issuance of bonds it would be advantageous to repeal said Ordinance Number 50 and adopt a revised chronology of ordinances.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL, STATE OF OHIO:

SECTION 1. That the presently existing Ordinance Number 50, 1968, providing for the issuance of notes in anticipation of the levy of special assessments and in anticipation of the issuance of bonds to pay the property owners' and the city's portions of the cost of improving the Maine Boulevard-Montrose Avenue area, Alton Street area, and Wooster Avenue area by constructing sanitary sewers of hard burned vitrified sewer pipe in the City of East Liverpool, Ohio, and declaring an emergency, be and the same hereby is repealed in its entirety.

SECTION 2. That this Ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency measure necessary for the preservation of the public welfare, health, property and safety of the City of East Liverpool and it shall go into effect immediately upon passage and approval by the Mayor of this City. Said emergency lies in the fact that said improvements are necessary to avoid unsanitary conditions due to new construction and present residences in the areas to be improved, and to provide for said construction can only be enabled by the immediate issuance and sale of certain notes and bonds, and is therefore necessary for the immediate preservation of public health, peace and safety of said city.

Junior Editors Quiz on MT. FUJIYAMA

QUESTION: Why is Mt. Fujiyama sacred to the Japanese?

* * *

ANSWER: The Japanese feel very close to nature. Their early religion was a kind of nature worship in which certain things were called kami, meaning above, superior, divine. Great men could be kami, but so could mountains, plants and animals. Mountains were especially kami because they suggested the idea of loftiness. The Japanese loved to go up the sides of mountains in summer to pray from some lofty shrine.

Among the kami mountains, Fujiyama was pre-eminent. The Japanese call it Fuji-san, the Matchless Mountain. They point out that everything in nature, including man, is imperfect in some way — almost everything, except Mt. Fuji. Fuji's wonderful cone rises in perfectly symmetrical, graceful, sweeping lines. It is so high its top is above the clouds. Its majestic, snow white cap seems to float in the air. So the Japanese have taken their Fuji-san as a sacred symbol of perfection.

(Robin Nichols of Akron, O., wins a prize for this question. You can win $10 cash plus AP's handsome World Yearbook if your question, mailed on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper, is selected for a prize.)

Today In History

By The Associated Press

On this date in 1942, the first American offensive battle in World War II began as U.S. Marines landed on Guadalcanal in the Solomon Islands.

On this date—

In 1782, George Washington established a military decoration called the Order of the Purple Heart.

Five years ago—The American first lady, Mrs. John F. Kennedy, gave birth to her second son, Patrick Bouvier Kennedy, at Otis Air Force Base Hospital on Cape Cod. The premature infant died two days later.
